Kinzua Boy Scouts Practice Outdoor Projects on Hike

By Elsa M. Leathers
Scout Master Harvey Pierce took the Boy Scouts on a hike Saturday. Five groups were present. Building fires in snow, building bridges across the creek, and a tower were tried by different groups. Pat Owens, Carl Coteman Jr., Jimmy Walker, Roger Graham, Billy O'Neil, Donnie Preston were present. Dinner was appreciated by the camp fire, after the boys had worked hard. They are sponsoring a dance here April 24.

Kinzua is proud to announce the received $203 for Red Cross. Ed Wahn and Harlan Shroder participated in the military services at Fossil Sunday afternoon for Jim Bailey who passed away of Heppner. Mrs. Harlan Shroder, Mel Wahn and Thad Turner also attended the services.

Mrs. Delbert Folsom, Kinzua, and Frank Williams of Fossil won the two prizes given for the best costumes at the hard time dance here Saturday night, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. Both prizes were Shaefer pen and pencil sets. Judges were Laurence McConnell, W. E. Draheim and Dwen H. Leathers Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown are spending this week at Spokane on business.

Buz Demaris is here this week from the Sisters assisting Don Kyle, local district forester, in picking the trees for reforestation on the large burn above Kinzua, since he spent several summers here under supervision of Red Henderson. His home is at Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers were visiting and attending to business in Heppner Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Pearson of Medford is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Rood.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Harshman and family visited over the week end here from Hardman with Mrs. Harshman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kinard McDaniel.

Nelson Murphy went to The Dalles Saturday for a check-up at the hospital. Mr. Murphy has been convalescing from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Owens took their small daughter to Heppner to a dentist on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson and family spent the week end at Spokane, visiting friends.

A large party of friends left here Friday evening for their homes in Missouri. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. D. Meade and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Elliott, Bobby Warren, Billy Jo Hunt and Norman Woods. Some names were not available. Harlan Adams and Esten Stevens visited over the week end at Heppner. Mr. Adams visited his father, J. B., and a sister, Mrs. Ester Burnside and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adams and daughter Billy motored to Pendleton on Saturday to visit friends and relatives until Tuesday. Mr. Adams is temporarily employed at the power house here. He drives a logging truck at Camp 5 when logging operations are resumed.

Johnny Owens and friend spent the week end here from The Dalles. He also played drums at the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Condon visited Mr. and Mrs. Claud England here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis went to The Dalles Saturday to bring Mrs. Emmett Davis home to Lone-rock from the hospital where she had undergone a minor operation on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sasser were shopping in Condon on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delvin McDaniel of Hardman came to Kinzua Sunday afternoon where Mr. McDaniel will work beginning Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Otto and Mrs. Matt Stumper began work in the factory the first of the week.

WE DON'T WANT WAR

To the Editor:
For several years the United States has been trying to better world conditions, but Russia has vetoed our efforts 21 times. She has thwarted all our peaceful plans. We have coaxed and pleaded with her all to no avail. The time has come for us to "get tough" with Russia.

Romans 12-20 tells us—"If thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink." That is exactly what we intend to do. All we ask is that Russian soldiers surrender themselves, their arms, and we offer them and theirs food, clothing and friendship.

Now where do we go from here—friends or foes? Take your choice Russia. If there must be another war, then let it come. We don't want war. We have done all we can to prevent it. If it comes, the responsibility for it will be on Russia.

J. S. McMurry.

Mrs. L. A. McCabe, active 4-H club leader, Ione, has recently organized a Clothing III club with the following members enrolled: Delight Biddle, Joan Coleman, Patricia Drake, Ingrid Hermann, Lola Ann McCabe, Carleta Olden, Jane Seehafer, and Ruby Ann Rietmann. These girls are also enrolled in a Homemaking club project at present which they will continue with.

Mrs. McCabe has the distinction of leading five clubs since 1945 with a 100% completion of all members enrolled. She has led Homemaking I, Cooking I, Canning I, Cooking II, and Clothing II clubs, now leading Homemaking III and Clothing III. Mrs. McCabe and her club have completed programs of work for each of the clubs she has led and her club has a charter for each club organized. Charters were recently awarded the club for the Homemaking and Clothing III projects.

This club record is something for Mrs. McCabe and her club girls to be proud of and is an exciting temple that all other 4-H clubs
