

Registrations At Irrigon Indicate Growth of District

By Grace Shoun
Indicative of the growth of this little project community is the increase in registrations of voters the past few weeks. Since interest in the May primary election has been warming up, 122 new names have been added to the voting list, making a total of 250 for the precinct. While some of this number have moved away, newcomers are still coming in and it is likely the voting strength of the precinct will be in the neighborhood of 250.

The Assembly of God church had a Sunday school rally Sunday morning with 97 Sunday school pupils, and Monday they had a fellowship meeting with Rev. Allan Banks, E. R. Scratch and Wayne Fagerstrom as the main speakers. They had out-of-town representatives from Athena, Freewater, Stanfield, Echo,

A WORD OF THANKS

During my recent hospitalization I received so many nice letters, cards, flowers and other remembrances that to write each person to whom I am indebted would impose a considerable tax upon my strength at this time. Won't you please accept my thanks conveyed to you in this manner.

Mrs. C. C. Carmichael.

A WORD OF THANKS

We are taking this way of thanking all the good and kind friends of Heppner and vicinity, also Ruth chapter, O. E. S., for all the beautiful flowers and plants, and the many acts of kindness, coming in from every side, which gives our sister Annie happiness. We will never forget.

The Hynd family.
