

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS FOR APRIL TERM

The minutes of the March, 1948, term were read and approved. The Court orders a Special Election to be held on May 21st, 1948 for the purpose of submitting to the people the proposition of levying a 10 mill tax for road purposes, said tax to be levied each year for a period of five years and also to vote on the amount of $12,470.00 which said sum is the amount over and above the 6% limitation as budgeted by the Morrow County Budget Committee. The Court orders the sale of the following County Property: Lots 4 to 9 inc., 12 and 13, and 15 and 19 inc. in Block 15 in the town of Irrigon, Morrow County, Ore-

NEW MILLSITE AT MONUMENT

This view was taken in March by Photographer Louis Lyons when the Heppner chamber of commerce delegation visited Monument. Emory Moore's equipment is here seen dragging dirt from the old channel of the John Day river to make the base for the millsite of the Heppner Lumber company's new mill. The company dredged a new channel for the river running on a straight line from the bridge to the canyon below Monument. The little town and mountains form the background.

A MESS AT BEST

If you intend to go fishing in Oregon this season make up your mind on spending more time trying to figure out the meaning of the 23 pages of new game rules and regulations, than you will on your trip. They are super-confusing. If you are just normal you will need the help of a surveyor, a zoologist, a lawyer and a cartographer to even approach an interpretation. When you give up (and give up you will) you'll need a psycho-analyst to get yourself back to normal. The 23 pages of 1948 fishing regulations are the most complicated and perplexing rules the citizens of Oregon, or probably any other state, ever had to contend with. Whodidit? Well, anyhow, at long last, Oregon has her own mystery story.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh "What's Your Opinion, Mister?" Fellow from one of those public opinion polls was in Andy's Garden Tavern, querying Andy's patrons on everything from that "new look" to the next election. And it occurred to me that there's nothing more typically American than collecting other folks' opinions, as well as giving out one's own. And from where I sit, it's a mighty healthy habit. So long as people can discuss both sides of a question that comes up—whether it concerns short skirts versus long, beer compared with cider, or the larger issues of party versus party—we're sure of the individual liberty that has made this country great. For it isn't differences of opinion that matter. The important thing is tolerance for differences of opinion—whether they affect the right of an individual to vote, to speak his mind, or enjoy a glass of beer. They're all parts of the freedom that we cherish!
