AREA 4-H SHOW AT THE DALLES FULLY SUPPORTED

This year at the second annual Eastern Oregon Wheat League 4-H show in The Dalles another grand champion baby pig will be chosen, along with top-ranking boys and lambs fattened with wheat. Shown here with Merie Eakin of Grass Valley and his 1947 grand champion are, left to right, Fred W. Mauser, The Dalles, who purchased the animal at auction for $2 a pound, Commander D. S. Elwood and Adjutant Percy N. Larson of The Dalles American Legion post. Mauser donated the pig to the Legion, which in turn gave it to the Portland Veterans' hospital. This year's show will be June 7, 8 and 9.

Lone, and his grandmother, Mrs. Inez V. Freeland of Portland.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our many friends and relatives for the kindness and sympathy extended and for the beautiful flowers at the services for our son and brother, Paul.
Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rietmann.

Gene and Larry.

The Lone P-TA held their last meeting of the year Wednesday evening, May 19. Mrs. B. C. Forsythe, the retiring president, told of the work carried out during her two years in the office. She paid tribute to the founders, the national president and the state president by lighting candles for each and paid tribute to her helpers by placing a tulip in a bowl and saying a word of praise for each. Mrs. Forsythe has been a very successful and capable president during her term of office and much has been accomplished.

The following officers were installed by Mrs. Forsythe and each presented with a corsage: President, Mrs. Omar Rietmann; vice president, Mrs. Markham Baker; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Francis Ely. A program was given by the 4-H club conducted by one of their leaders, Mrs. Ruth McCabe, which consisted of the flag salute, 4-H salute, song by all, "The Star Spangled Banner"; health club history; Leslie Aldrich; demonstration of making a bed by Joan Coleman, Barbara Jackson and Dolores Drake; musical duet by Ronald and Duane Baker; demonstration of cutting out a dress by Jane Seehafer and Ingrid Hermann; report on the beef club by Louis Carlson; talk by Harry Seymour, former leader of 4-H work in the state. Nelson Anderson showed pictures and gave a talk and presented Louis Carlson a scholarship from the Union Pacific railroad for being the outstanding 4-H member of Morrow county. The program closed with a song by the 4-H girls and a candle lighting ceremony. There were several articles made by the members on display, also some of the girls modeled their dresses. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, Mrs. Edmond Bristow, Mrs. Berl Akers and Mrs. Wm. Bergstrom.

Out-of-town visitors at the Lone P-TA meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seymour of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Anderson of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. John Graves of Lexington.

A bridal shower was given at the Legion hall May 22 in honor of Mrs. Jack Healy of Rockaway. She received many lovely gifts. Cake and coffee were served by the following hostesses: Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. James Lindsay, Mrs. Gary Tullis, Mrs. Darrell Padberg, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Edmond Bristow, Mrs. Earl McCabe and Mrs. Ernest McCabe. Those attending the shower from a distance were Mrs. John Healy and daughter Rosetta, Mrs. James Farley, Mrs. Harry O'Donnell Sr., Mrs. Harry O'Donnell Jr., Mrs. Chas. Hodge and Mrs. Wm. Bucknum of Heppner.
