around some triple-cornered corner. Better paste the following paragraph in your hat if you expect to be doing business with any of the seven state departments that will be located in the new state office building.

The board of control, purchasing department, civil service commission and the state police department will occupy the first floor. The public utilities commissioner and his large staff will occupy the entire second floor. The top three floors will be used by the unemployment compensation commission and the state accident commission.

Kinzua On Daylight Saving Time Since Monday Morning

By Elsa M. Leathers
Kinzua went on daylight saving time Monday at noon. Monday was a given holiday and all departments were down. Work was resumed Tuesday afternoon, starting at the new time.

Mrs. George Smith was selling the poppy Wednesday evening at the store, and Mrs. Jerry Rood at the theater.

Freddie Beard, scout master, took the boys on a hike Monday. Lone played ball here Sunday, losing the game to Kinzua, the final score being 4 to 11. To date Kinzua has lost two games, to Wasco and Heppner. Kinzua plays Condon at Condon Sunday, June 6.

Maurice Brown, George Close, Clay Phillips, Joe Hays and Jimmy Walker attended the Masonic convocation at Portland over the week end, going down on Friday. Clay Phillips took his Shriner degree. Andy Staig, Kinzua time-keeper of Fossil, also Bill Stevens and George Dukek also went down.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Pelkey are visiting at the home of Mr. Pelkey's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Preston from Bremerton, Wash. The young couple are newlyweds. Mrs. Charles Elliott of The Dalles was spending Memorial day at the home of her sister, Mrs. Warren Jobe.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Disney were in Kinzua, coming up from Vanport on Saturday to get Mrs. Disney's small daughter, Betty Jo, who was attending school here, and bringing the older daughter, Barbara, to spend the summer vacation. It is believed by friends that the Disneys lost their home in the flood while here at Kinzua.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton and son were shopping and attending to business in Pendleton on Tuesday. Mrs. Earl Swanson, Mrs. Denton's mother, returned to Pendleton with them, returning to her home at Freewater after visiting here for some time.

Mrs. F. M. Harrison returned home the last of the week from La Grande where she had been doctoring. She visited also at Hermiston.

Sammy Mattison received word he has a 7 1/2 pound baby daughter at San Diego, Cal. The young lady was named Helen Lorraine.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bird spent the holiday vacation at Baker City.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Reeser were over from Prineville during the holiday vacation. Mrs. Clair Reeser and daughter also came and visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Baker, Mrs. Ed Wham and Lillian Schott motored to Bend Friday to see Betty Lewis graduate from high school. Miss Lewis is a niece of Mrs. Baker's and lived at Kinzua prior to Bend. She returned home with Lillian Schott and is visiting here for a few days.

George Taylor came over from Redmond Saturday, bringing his aged father who is 90 years old to visit a brother and son, Roy Taylor. They returned to their home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Neal and children went to Lewiston, Idaho, Wednesday to visit a week, but flood conditions on the trip forced them to return on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Zolan Tripp went to The Dalles on Thursday, returning Saturday. Due to the high water on the Columbia river highway they were detoured through Maupin, Grass Valley and home.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Keeley were in Kinzua Sunday visiting from Camp 5, and also saw the ball game.

Mrs. Frank Galyean began work in the confectionery, taking Mrs. Skip Wright's place. Mrs.

Wright has worked there for a number of years.

Marvin Jackson and Ralph Moore were attending to business in Heppner Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Preston left for Seattle on Friday to make their home. Mr. Preston will return later for their household goods.

Mrs. Fred Beard is ill at her home.

Mrs. Owen Leathers was attending to business at Heppner Friday and Saturday, also going to Hardman cemetery Memorial day. While there she attended the high school graduation exercises.

Due to the injured ankle Bill Hess received playing Wasco he was unable to play ball Sunday. His foot is in a cast.
