

Mock Wedding Is Feature of Couple's 25th Anniversary

Mrs. Cecil Jones

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marquardt, assisted by Shirlee Smouse, entertained friends and relatives Monday night honoring Mr. and Mrs. Marquardt's 25th wedding anniversary. This was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hughes, daughter of the Marquardts. A mock wedding was held with small children friends of the couple making up the entertainment. Music was by Mrs. Hughes. The candles were lighted by Charlene Jones who wore a light blue brocaded satin dress, after which the preacher, Jerry Messenger entered followed by the best man, Carroll Messenger, and the maid of honor, Charlene Jones, followed by the groom, Roy Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes of Heppner, and then the bride, Marilyn Pettyjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn of Ione. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Kenny Smouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse of Ione who wore a white dress, caught entrain with a fingertip veil, and a coronet. After the ceremony the bride and groom cut the first piece of wedding cake. Charlene presented Mr. Marquardt with a red rose bud and Mrs. Marquardt with a corsage. Refreshments of cake, punch and ice cream were served. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse and family, Mrs. Anna Smouse and daughter Shirlee of Ione, Mrs. Elwyn Hughes and son of Heppner, Mrs. Grace Hughes of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Balsinger and Mr. Marquardt of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger Sr. and family of Lexington, Mrs. Cecil Jones and daughter of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hughes, Carl Marquardt, Pat Doherty, and Iris Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marquardt.

Rev. and Mrs. Hatch are spending this week in Turner where they are attending a convention.

The Nelson brothers of Butter creek brought the first load of wheat into Lexington. This is Orford wheat, a new strain that they are trying out in this section of the country. This is going about 35 bushels to the acre and was cut on the old Finley place.

Howard Warner of California, brother of Earl Warner, is spending a few days here visiting.

The farmers of the community are trying to get the stop sign by the school house changed to the main highway during harvest season as the loaded wheat trucks coming down the hill by the school house have to stop. It would be much easier for the cars going the other way to stop. And other feature about this is that there will be more traffic on the road during the height of the wheat hauling season.

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the wedding of Ben Grant, brother of Ed Grant, to Miss Roxie Owens of Elizabethton, Tenn., by Justice Percy Smith of Prineville. Ben spent several years in this community. Miss Owens wore a navy blue afternoon sheer frock with corsage of pink rosebuds. Attending the wedding were Miss Dorothy Schneider and Donald Bussey was best man. Following the ceremony the entire wedding party were guests of E. C. King at the Ochoco cafe.

A large group of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Bill Hicks Thursday, June 17, for a surprise shower on the Ben Grants. Refreshments of ice cream, punch and cake were served by the hostess.

Miss Doris Grant and Ramona Hicks returned to Lexington after a visit in Prineville at the Hicks home. Donald Grant returned to the home of Darrell Hicks for a visit.

Patty O'Hara has gone to The Dalles where she will be employed at The Dalles hospital.

Billy Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griffin Sr., has been singing over the radio on the Pendleton station.
