Play Safe!

The season is at hand to paint, repair and modernize your home.

We suggest that you investigate the costs of desired improvements with your local merchants and workmen who are in position to correct or adjust any work that is not entirely satisfactory.

Be wary about entering into any agreement with outsiders whose responsibility, materials and workmanship are not thoroughly known to you.

Financial assistance is as readily available to you through local merchants or directly from your local bank as can be offered elsewhere. FHA Title I Loan is designed for this purpose.
