Elmer Hunt spent the week end in La Grande with his family.

Melon Stands At Irrigon Get Into Action Past Week

By Grace Shoun
Everyone seems pleased since the work on the McNary dam is starting again.

Among those selling melons now are the Glen Aldrich's, who are trucking them out, the H. H. Whipple's, and the Charles McFall's and the Vernon Jones are running stands. The McCoy's are also getting ready to truck out melons. Potato digging and trucking out has been going on for two weeks. The grape farmers are busy cultivating and training the vines.

Lea Bently of Fossil is moving to Irrigon this week end to work in the Ora Thompson garage. He has a wife and four sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carter and daughter Loraine are vacationing on the Oregon beaches.

Mrs. Mary Bowen Bricker left Monday for Grants Pass where she will teach the coming school year. She taught here in the high school last year.

Earl Golden and John Swering and a Pendleton sanding firm are cleaning, painting and refinishing the school house for the coming school term.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shoun spent Tuesday in Walla Walla at the Andrew Shoun home. They all went out to the Homer Hart home at Umapine in the afternoon.

C. W. Acock is spending a week at Redmond with his daughter (Mary), Mrs. Adren Allen, and family. James Shoun and Betty Acock took him over Saturday night.

B. P. Rand and son Herbert were in Pasco Friday. Herbert is on crutches. He and Lyle Mulkey piled up on their motorcycles two weeks ago to keep from running into a car that stopped in front of them. Herbert was underneath with two bones broken in his leg above the ankle. He spent a week in the Walla Walla general hospital.

Mrs. Harvey Warner took Mrs. Nora Wilson to Pendleton Friday to get the cast removed from her arm and to have it x-rayed. She stepped off a high porch a few weeks ago and broke both bones in her forearm. She is getting along good now.

According to Washington reports an average of 500 new workers per day have been added to the Federal payroll since the first of the year. No doubt these workers are qualified to vote. No doubt, too, their boss, a man named Harry Truman, hopes they will vote for, and induce their friends and relatives to vote for—guess who? Well, this system worked quite well in 1936, 1940, and 1944. The only catch is, this is 1948—Davis (Calif.) Enterprise.

It costs the federal government 10 times as much to educate Indians in Federal schools as in public schools.

The Indiana legislature has passed a resolution regarding federal aid to states which says: "We have taken a good look at Federal dollars and find that they all lose weight on their journey to Washington and back home again."

While the cost of food has gone up 100 per cent since 1939 the cost of government has gone up 377 per cent, and government now costs more than food.—The Oakland (N. J.) News.

Falling down on his promise to lower taxes and bigger hand-outs, the undaunted politician is in with another. This calls for a controlled economy within the framework of free enterprise!—Washington (D. C.) Star.
