News About New Cars

Despite the fact that the war ended over three years ago shortages still plague manufacturers of motor cars.

In addition to steel shortages, suppliers' strikes interrupt production. At the present time one of the large independent manufacturers is closed and one of the big three's production is down to a dribble of their regular production. All this lost time caused by a strike at a large body builder's plant.

ANTI-FREEZE: Anti-freeze is again on the short supply list this year. Be careful of just as good anti-freeze this year. It may save you a big repair bill. Be sure of a reputable manufacturer.

GAS SHORTAGE: The volunteer ration put into effect by the oil companies to spread the available supply of motor fuel has brought varied reactions from the public. One woman customer drove in to the gas pump with a car that has a larger than usual size fuel tank and said fill her up. When the attendant at the pump advised her we were limiting gas sales to five gallons per customer she turned up her nose and told him she would go elsewhere and buy her gas. A few minutes later she was back with her car and said I will take the five gallons of gas now if still available.

CAR PAINTING: We have just installed the latest type DeVilbiss paint booth for painting motor cars. This paint booth is made of steel with the latest type ventilation system. All air entering the paint booth must pass through special designed filters to keep the interior absolutely clean. The lighting is of special design. You will pardon us if we are a little proud in showing it to you. It is one of the first in this part of the country.

Sincerely yours,
 CLARENCE ROSEWALL.
