Some of That 77c a Pound Beef
 This picture, taken in the locker room at the Court Street Market, shows the dressed carcasses of several 4-H Beef Club show animals purchased by local people at the recent Morrow County Fair and Rodeo. It was the first fat beef sale to be held here and the high average of 77 cents per pound for the stock offered was well above the average attained at similar sales elsewhere in the state. Leonard Schwarz, proprietor of the Court Street Market, dressed the beef out.

WE HAVE the exclusive agency for Snap-on Venetian Blinds. Call Yeager's.

CARD OF THANKS
 We wish to thank the many friends, neighbors, business houses, lodges and the Three Links club of Lexington for their generous donations and their expressions of sympathy for Chuckie. If he were old enough to know what you people have done he would be very grateful. We are very grateful to each and every one. A mere thanks seems so little in return for us to make, but perhaps someday we can give someone a helping hand. So again we say Thanks from the bottom of our hearts.
 Vernon and Dorothy Christopherson.
