Ashland Residents Greeted by Former Neighbors, Friends

Mrs. Cecil Jones

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilcox, former residents of Lexington, were happy to renew acquaintances with them and their family, who were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Graves to attend the wedding of Miss JoAnne Graves, granddaughter of the Wilcoxs. Those here were Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox and their children, Claude and family from Troutdale, and Lester and Glenn and his new bride who is from Florida where their wedding was solemnized Oct. 6, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilcox of Hermiston. The Wilcox family lived for years on the Vernon Brown place below Lexington, with Mr. Wilcox teaching here many years ago. They live at Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Runyan and family of Hepner and his brother, Sam Runyan, and daughter Judy of Camas, Wash., were Sunday visitors at the home of Miss Dona Barnett and Mrs. Trina Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones were hosts to several friends at a dinner Sunday honoring their daughter Charlene's birthday. Those attending were Rev. and Mrs. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Ted McMullan and children John Spence, Miss Joy Gerharz, and Miss Edna Ivey.

Friends in Lexington were grieved to hear of the passing of Mrs. Rae Warfield of Hepner. Mrs. Warfield was the former Miss Cowins and lived for quite some time with her grandmother, Mrs. George Allyn and attended school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Feathers and family spent the week end in Clackamas at the home of the Kelloggs, parents of Mrs. Feathers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Van Winkle are doing some remodeling on their house here. They are building two bedrooms, a bath room and utility room.

The service station which was run for several years by Ed Grant has been sold to Roger Anderson and Elwynne Peck. People are very sorry to have the Grants move to their new home in Prineville but wish Ed all the success possible there.

News has been received in Lexington concerning Chuckie Christopherson that he is still in the hospital, but is some improved.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Underwood, parents of Mrs. Don Campbell, were visitors here over the week end. They are from Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Harrison of Cascade Locks were visitors at the Lawrence Palmer home over the week end. She and Mrs. Palmer attended the shower for Miss Graves in Hepner Saturday.

County Agent News

One of the most interesting demonstrations seen lately was the use of the Noble plow which was used on the Orville Cutsforth farm last Wednesday afternoon, October 6. This plow, which consists of a V sweep, available in various lengths from five and one half to ten feet, is adapted to use in very heavy stubble. The sweeps are set at such an angle that there is a suction to the blades which can be set to conform to a constant depth of tillage.

During the demonstration, various attempts were made to plug the blade flat on the ground. The machine did a fine job of sub surface tillage, and a one way disk pulled into the field immediately after the use of the Noble sweep did an excellent operation of stubble mulch tillage. In fact the combination was so good that painfully cut on the mouth at the ball game at Stanfield Friday, and was taken to Hermiston to a physician who took four stitches.

Mrs. Lonnie Henderson entertained the HEC at her home on Thursday with Mrs. Jones as co-hostess. The afternoon was spent sewing, with discussion of the turkey dinner to be served Nov. 13. After a short business meeting refreshments of coffee, ritz crackers, and pineapple and strawberry bavarian cream was served to 18 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Nichols of Hepner are now living in the Barnett apartments here.

Hear Sam Gordon spout bridge. Legion Hall, Oct. 28-29-30.

Mr. Cutsforth decided to order a twenty foot section of the Noble sweep. This will be set this week fall on the Cutsforth ranch.
