

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chaffee Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Chaffee celbrated their golden wedding anniversary Saturday, Oct. 23, attending a party given by the community at the grange hall. The program consisted of the following numbers: piano solo, Mrs. Lowell Shattuck; duet, Grace Miller and Marlene Fisk; violin solo, Earl Cramer; saxophone duet, Donald Gillespie and Wilbur Pi-boardman in 1921 with their family, where they have since lived. Taking over the telephone office upon their arrival they continued operating it until January of this year. They have eight children, all living, and five of them were at the party, and most of their grandchildren. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. James of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. John Chaffee, Portland, and Arthur Chaffee, Boardman; grandchildren were Marjorie, Robert and Richard James of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gilham, Roseburg; Connie Mae and Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. att; piano duet, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and Mrs. Frank Marlow; Pantomime of the married life of the bride and groom, acted out by local talent; introduction of the couple and their family, Mrs. Leo Root; and the gift was presented by R. B. Rands. Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee were then ushered to the dining room where the bride cut the first piece of the three-tiered cake, all decorated in gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee came to Jack Thielen and daughter Rebecca, of Eugene. Rebecca Thielen is the only great grandchild. Two daughters, Mrs. Carol Kennedy, Eugene, and Mrs. Alvin Fegles of Grants Pass were unable to attend due to sickness, and one son, Adna, who is with the merchant marines, was unable to get here. While in Boardman, members of the family were guests at the local hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee and family wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the community for the grand party and the gift which was presented to the parents, and all those who took part in the program and in any way had a part.

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Eble are the proud parents of twin boys born Saturday evening, Oct. 23, at the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. This makes four sons for the Ebles. The little ones have been named Dale and Dean. Week-end guests at the Robert Harwood home were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradley of Packwood, Wn. Bradley and Mrs. Harwood are brother and sister.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were Mrs. Thorpe's sister, Pauline Smith of Union, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and daughter of La Grande.

Mrs. Clifford Wood and son of Arlington are visiting a few days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Earwood.

While returning from Heppner one day last week Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Rippee were side-swiped by a gravel truck, tearing off the side mirror and doing damage to the fender and radiator. The truck did not stop so the Rippees are at a loss to know who hit them. Mrs. Ralph Earwood and daughter Shirley were with the Rippees.

Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leo Root. The subject for study was Alaska, which was very interesting. The host assisted by Esther Knight served cookies and coffee.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simcox were their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Conel of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Los Angeles, the latter a sister-in-law and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Los Angeles, who is a sister-in-law, and W. A. Simcox Jr. of La Grande, who is a radio announcer in that city.

Week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs were Mrs. Briggs' son of Milwaukee, and her daughter and two children of Pullman, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Garner and two children left for Bend Friday where they were to join Mr. Garner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Plumb, and from there they were all to motor to Fort Morgan, Col., to visit Mrs. Cramer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Jones. This will be the first time for the grandparents with the little granddaughter, Anita Garner. Phillip Jones is driving school bus for Garner during his absence and Ora Ely is assisting Etta Jones at the telephone office.

Friday evening Mrs. Ely took a group of boys skating to the Plamore. Those going were Alan Ely, Harold and Darrell Marlow, Peter Cassidy, Franklin Ball and Donald Gillespie. The school grade students were also there going in the school bus.

Many local folk left Sunday for the opening elk hunt. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mulligan and daughter Judy and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyss left for Prairie City. Others going were Alfred Archer, Dick Robertson, and Dale Eades.

Chet Atteberry of Tacoma visited his mother, Mrs. Olive Atteberry, a couple of days last week. Visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Veele were Mrs. Veele's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Calliff of Oregon City, also Mrs. L. Cameron and four children, Mrs. S. Bristow and family. Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Bristow are sisters of Mrs. Veele.

Mrs. Reimette Root, who has spent the past week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Root, left Monday morning for her home in Gridley, Cal. Mrs. Root accompanied her as far as Corvallis where she will spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Olive Mcford and a sister, Mrs. Max De-weese.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stoltzow motored to Pilot Rock Sunday to visit Mrs. Stoltzow's son-in-law and daughter and little granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. John McMahon and Patty Jo. Mrs. Stoltzow remained for a few days with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Macomber spent Sunday in Arlington with Mr. Macomber's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zerba of Pendleton and Miss Esther Jones of Hermiston were Sunday dinner guests at the home of the girl's mother, Mrs. Blanche Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Brown received word of the death of a daughter in California Saturday.

Mr. Brown is elk hunting at this residence property.

ing in Heppner to dispose of their residence property.
