

Mrs. Harlan Adams Seriously Injured In Car Accident

By Elsa M. Leathers
Mrs. Harlan Adams was seriously injured Friday evening when she, with her husband and Layton Tripp, were on the way to John Day to see the football game between Fossil and Grant Union. The Tripp car went off the curve below the Reese Humphreys ranch. It is believed the car rolled over a time or two after hitting on the nose. Layton was thrown out. All were knocked out and the men got Mrs. Adams out of the car before she regained consciousness. She was taken to the Blue Mountain hospital at Prairie City by ambulance, where it was learned her back is fractured, also her breast bone besides a bad wound near her eye that required a large number of stitches. Mr. Adams and Mr. Tripp suffered only shock and a few scratches and Mr. Adams has a badly bruised and sprained arm.

It was learned by phone Tuesday evening Mrs. Adams was "doing nicely," and was able to feed herself that night.

In this growing region...

Every Kilowatt Counts

Be thrifty in using electricity for lighting your home and running your radio. Your thrift will save you money. You'll be helping to save electricity, too. That's important, because every kilowatt is needed in this fast-growing area. Peak power needs in the Pacific Northwest have increased more than 57% in only four years. So use your radio and lights carefully. Follow the tips listed below. You'll be saving electricity vitally needed in this fast-growing region.

How to save...

Don't leave lights burning unnecessarily. Use only lamps required for good lighting and safety.

Turn off the radio when you leave it. It's a small item, but every kilowatt counts.

WHERE WHISPERS TURN TO SHOUTS

How outpost repeater stations keep your long distance calls at almost home-town clarity

1. Your voice gets a boost in repeater stations like this one. For currents fade on the lines and without amplifiers, your voice would soon be lost. The equipment can literally turn a faded voice into a roar. Much of it requires only periodic check-ups like the one the technician is giving it here.

2. Vast Western distances make it necessary for us to build stations all along our country lines to keep your voice going through with normal clarity and volume. On some lines repeaters are spaced 70 miles apart. On others they're as close as 8 miles. You may have noticed some of them from the highway.

3. Specially-trained men keep a 24-hour watch at key stations. When they spot possible trouble they get a crew on the job in a hurry... often before lines go out. For putting cross-country calls through reliably, with cross-street clarity, is part of our job of furnishing the best possible service to the West.

4. When you make a telephone call, you hire a valuable servant at low cost... a more useful servant than ever. It can do more jobs... run more errands. For today there are twice as many telephones in the West as ten years ago. Thousands more go in each week. And each new telephone added makes every other telephone more useful.

RIDICULOUS

COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON $2.50 lb.

But not as ridiculous as it sounds, Mrs. Housewife!
Remember back in the '30's when you could feed your family well for about $35.00 a month? If someone had said then that in 1948 you could only feed your family skimpily at $90.00 a month you would have exclaimed "Ridiculous!" But your food costs are flying high.

A NEW MONOPOLY FURTHER THREATENS YOUR FOOD COSTS!

A small group—the Gillnetter's union—want a "closed shop" on the Columbia River salmon catch. They are getting 70% of the total catch now but they want ALL! So they are aiming at your pocketbook—by trying to FIGHT THIS FOOD MONOPOLY NOW—YOU CAN PREVENT IT FROM HAPPENING!

The facts show—as reported by the Oregon Fish Commission, June, 1948, that all that happens when you ban fixed gear is that more fish are caught by gillnets.

So, this bill to eliminate fixed gear is not conservation of salmon, but absolute control of the salmon catch. You housewives have had experience with such monopolies. You know what happens to your household expenses! Usually you have had to fight AFTER these conditions exist. Now you can fight BEFORE it is formed. It will be much easier to prevent this "closed shop on the Columbia" by voting 319-X-NO.

All over Oregon open-minded people are asking: Why Require Purchase of a Bottle? LEGALIZE LIQUOR BY THE GLASS!

In a scientific, state-wide survey recently completed, a reliable public-opinion research organization, which has accurately forecast the results of many Oregon elections, finds that "a majority of those who have heard of the measure (liquor-by-the-glass) would presently vote for its passage."

This confirms a similar state-wide survey, made last spring, which found 46% of Oregon's citizens in favor of liquor-by-the-glass and 44% insisting on purchase of liquor by-the-bottle only.

It is a fact that whenever open-minded citizens or organizations have studied the measure without prior prejudice, they have found reasons for supporting this measure and no legitimate reasons for opposing it.

The Retail Trade Bureau of the Portland Chamber of Commerce says, in an authorized statement: "This Bureau is on record, through its membership, favoring amendment to the Knox Law which would permit the sale of drinks in hotels and clubs, over the bar. The reason for our taking this action is the belief that it would encourage temperance and would not necessitate individuals buying a whole bottle and consuming it immediately, if an individual drink could be purchased."

The Oregon State Federation of Labor is on record with the following resolution: "Whereas, the present system of liquor control in Oregon is not good and results in imposition of unreasonable regulations upon citizens who desire to consume alcoholic beverages, and whereas, the sale of alcoholic beverages in hotels and restaurants and other public places should be lawful without the possession of club licenses; therefore it is resolved that the Oregon State Federation of Labor will join with any other responsible groups who initiate the change of the present law to permit the free and open sale of beverages of alcoholic content by responsible licensed businesses without the present cumbersome restrictions."

On February 21, 1948, Oregon's largest newspaper, The Oregonian, said editorially: "The privilege of buying liquor by-the-drink would be appreciated by tourists, many of whom complain of the present system. It would encourage hotels, restaurants and entertainment clubs to improve their facilities. But without considering these benefits to business, one also may hope for a decline in drunkenness in public places and rapid diminishment of bootlegging if there is licensing and strict control of legitimate outlets for sale of liquor by-the-drink."

Señ F. Harper, superintendent of the State Liquor Dispensary in our neighboring state of Idaho, in a letter dated August 26, 1948, said: "I am certain that with the high license and bond, careful state regulations regarding the sale of liquor, and a good enforcement operation, sale of liquor by-the-drink can be a decided factor in a temperate regulation of the use of alcoholic beverages."

EVEN ITS FRIENDS WILL ADMIT THE KNOX LAW IS FAR FROM PERFECT!

C. C. Chapman, of The Oregon Voter, has been critical of this measure for reasons of his own, but in the issue of August 7, 1948, he has this to say: "Oregon's Knox Law seemed the best way to compromise between prohibition and the saloon... it has worked out fairly well. Under it there have been no centers for drinking of hard liquor except the home, the licensed club or the licensed establishment to which the purchaser could take his own bottle and have service of his own liquor. Conditions have not been satisfactory to anyone, but they have approached a moderate acceptability."

In a recent published statement, Mrs. Ruth E. Toozee, state president of the W.C.T.U., typical of the organizations working against the liquor-by-the-glass measure, said: "Let me emphasize again that the Oregon Women's Christian Temperance Union is now, as in the past, opposed to all liquor sales, whether they are sales by-the-glass, or sales by-the-bottle through the state liquor control system operating under the Knox law or any other law."
