POPULATION AND POLITICS

Here we are with our state leading the nation in increase of population and we are just complacently taking it in stride while an estimated 35,000 newcomers are crowding state departments and chambers of commerce pleading for illustrated literature about Oregon to send eastern friends. Seems they are better boosters than we are and that we can take a good lesson from them.

What a lot of anxious candidates and political bird dogs would like to know is how many of these new registrants are republicans and how many are democrats. Democrats are claiming that a big majority are of their faith. If this is true it could, of course, be a potent factor in the election.

In 1940 Wilkie was 38,800 votes behind Roosevelt. In 1944 Dewey trailed Roosevelt by 25,210 votes.

Whether we are for Dewey, Truman or anyone else on election day, a good thing to remember 365 days of the year is that we are solidly for Oregon.

FOREST PROTECTION
 It will cost over two million dollars to protect Oregon forests from fire in 1949. Like everything else the cost of forest protection has gone up. Last year forest fire loss was held down to 2 of 1 per cent of the 12,446,036 acres that required guarding.

Under the Clark-McNary act, Oregon received $789,000 for forest protection purposes in 1948. This was the largest amount received by any state, since we have more timber than any other state.

CHURCHES

LEXINGTON CHURCH
 We extend to everyone in the Lexington community a cordial invitation to come and worship with us. Bible school meets each Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and the worship service follows at 11 o'clock, when the pastor will speak on the subject, "Your Responsibility on Tuesday, Nov. 2nd." At the 8 o'clock evening service the junior choir will bring special music, and the sermon subject will be, "We Would See Jesus." Adult choir practice on Wednesday night.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

LET'S HAVE QUIET
 The eight months of political campaign harangue this year is bound to have short circuited the tempers of many individuals and rolled the calm and sanctimonious air of most communities of the state. But not of Oregon's capital city. Not if Salem's Chief of Police Frank Minto has correctly counted his box of "hot foot" matches. Months ago he issued edicts against loud speakers, against fireworks and against posters on public property, especially posters with mugs that are an invitation to morose artists to add a fin de siecle mustache or other doodling modernisms to the political portraits. What may ulcerate tant candidates most, however, is his bums rush order against fortune tellers. The chief has promised them prompt attention with his riot squad, the street cleaning department and the "second aid" crew.

CAPITAL SHORT SHOTS
 Sharpen your pencil to vote the longest ballot in Oregon's history—come next Tuesday. Oregon's record-breaking payroll for 1947 totaled $1,936,000,000—more than three times as much as in 1940. A salary increase of $10 a month for each state employee has been granted by the state emergency board and will be considered by the state civil service board for approval or amendments by the legislature. Judge Fred W. Wilson, The Dalles, will retire under the retirement act as judge of the Seventh district court. He has been a circuit judge in Wasco and Hood River counties for 32 years. There are 1,109,000 men and women of voting age in Oregon. State motor officials estimate there is one passenger car for every 3.4 persons in the state. There are 25 per cent more students attending the Oregon Vocational school at Klamath Falls than were anticipated.

ON WAY TO ORIENT
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor have received word from their son, Francis Connor, Y.N.S.N. 3, that he is on his way to China or Japan, he did not know which. He expects to be back in the States by Christmas. His ship is the U.S.S. Princeton. Francis has been in the navy the past two years.

Rev. Eric O. Robathan of Pendleton was a Heppner visitor Tuesday coming over to greet the new vicar and wife, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Tull, of All Saints Episcopal church.

NEWS NOTES FROM HOME MANAGEMENT OFFICE
 Friday, October 29, at 6:30 4-H boys and girls, "has-been 4-H'ers," "would-be 4-H'ers," and parents and friends will enjoy a potluck supper preceding the third successive annual 4-H achievement show. Pin awards, special recognition, music and movies are all a part of the program. James Bishop, Umatilla county 4-H agent, will be there to present pins for leaders and to give a brief message. So pack your basket, gather up your friends and go to Lexington grange hall Friday at 6:30.

We say a big thank you to the merchants of Heppner, Lexington and lone who displayed posters showing 4-H winners and their special awards. We were sorry there weren't enough posters and awards for all to display. Let's continue this active interest in 4-H club work and back these boys and girls all year 'round!

Two meetings were called in Morrow county to organize a C. R. O. P. program which would send a carload of wheat to needy Europeans. The aim is to get this shipped by November 11. Those who wish to contribute may do so in cash or actual wheat. Mr. Ted Smith has expressed his willingness to help. "Christianity in Carload Lots" is a very enlightening article in November issue of Farm Journal. This article explains plans of other states, sponsors, goals and distribution. C. R. O. P. sends most grain whole so that it will give more employment where needed overseas and waste is less due to more of kernel being milled there.
