Achievement Party Reveals Activities Of 4-H Clubbers

115 Youngsters of County Awarded For Participation

One of the finest achievement parties yet held in honor of the 4-H club members and workers of Morrow county is the place in history to be given the party held at the Lexington grange hall last Friday evening. Beginning with a sumptuous potluck feast at 7 o'clock and running through the program, which while a little lengthy because of the many awards presented, was an eye-opening lesson in what 4-H club work is doing for our young people.

Awards were issued to 115 youngsters for their 1948 projects. Not all of the recipients could be at the party but they will receive their awards in due time.

First year pins: (The list is too long to permit of projects): Both Ball, Nancy Ball, JoAnne Bothwell, Eddie Bronnan, Johnny Bronnan, Ronald Currin, Marlene Griffith, Nanette Griffith, Janet Marie Howton, Judith Ann Howton, Janet Marie Myers, Shirley Anne Myers, Marilyn Munkers, Rita McDaniel, Malcolm McKinney, Leland McKinney, Edward Sanders, Nancy Sherman, Marvin Wightman, Janet Wright, Sharon Hill.

Third year pins: Duane Baker, Ronald Baker, Pat Cutsforth, Dorothy French, Allen Hughes, Eleanor Rice, Jim Wightman, Paty Ann Wright.

Fourth year pins: Sharon Beckert, Jean Coleman, Kenneth Cutsforth, Delores Drake, Patricia Drake, Dean Graves, Diane Van Horn, Carolyn Johnson, Lola Ann McCabe, Ivan McDaniel, Ruby Ann Rietmann, Jane Sechafer.

Fifth year pins: Ida Lee Chapel, Orville Cutsforth Jr., Rieta Mae Graves, Lois June Van Winkle.

Sixth year pins: Nancy Ferguson, Ingrid Hermann.

Seventh year pins: Betty Jean Graves, Lorene Mitchell.

Eighth year pin: Louis Carlson.

4-H club junior project: Frank Brown, Gene Case.

Aside from recognition given the 4-H clubbers, their leaders and others contributing to the work came in for praise and numerous special guests were introduced.

County Agent Nelson Anderson and Miss Mabel Wilson, home demonstration agent, were in charge of the program. James Bishop, Umatilla county 4-H club award, presented special awards and made a talk complimenting leaders and clubbers on their progress. A film was shown giving the history of 20 years of 4-H club leadership contributed by a farmer and his wife.

Pomona Scheduled For Saturday At Greenfield Grange

Morrow county Pomona grange will convene at 10 a.m. Saturday November 6, in Boardman with the Greenfield grange as host. An important business meeting will be held.

Lowell Steen, state president of the Farm Bureau, will speak during the lecturer's hour which will be held after the noon meal. Special numbers will be presented by subordinate granges.

An overseer's mat has been selected as a traveling prize for the subordinate grange reporting the largest number of members in attendance at other subordinate granges in Morrow county for the year 1948, and will be on display.

MANAGEMENT CHANGES

With the departure of the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis for their new home in Freewater, Jack Loyd, assistant manager the past several months, became manager of the local plant of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. Coming here early in 1946, Loyd was associated with his brother Tom at the former Noble Saddle shop. This partnership was dissolved last spring and Loyd went in to learn the retail lumber business.

PARTY POSTPONED

The OES Social club party scheduled for Saturday, November 6, has been postponed. Notices will be sent for the next date.

Two-Day Deanery Rally Scheduled At Local Church

A two-day deanery rally of eastern Oregon youth has been scheduled by the Columbia deanery of the eastern Oregon district of the Episcopal church with All Saints church of Heppner as host. Date for the event is Saturday and Sunday, November 13-14. This will be the first youth rally held in this area under the new deanery set-up of the church. Preparations are under way to take care of approximately 100 young people besides several visiting clergymen.

Young people from Milton, Pendleton, Hermiston, The Dalles and Hood River will be here and sleeping accommodations will be needed for them the night of November 13. People wishing to assist in housing the visitors should notify La Verne Van Marter or Mrs. Merle Miller at once.

Ministers, including Bishop Lane W. Barton, who will appear on the program are Rev. Elvon L. Tull, All Saints, Heppner; Rev. Loyd Thomas, St. Marks, Hood River; Rev. Leonard Dixon, St. Andrews, Prineville; Rev. Ray Gayle, St. James, Milton; Rev. Eric O. Robathan, Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, and Rev. E. E. Taylor, St. Paul's, The Dalles.

Miss Hazel Morrison, chairman of isolated rural work, headquarters at Klamath Falls, also has a spot on the program.

New Bus Service Inaugurated Here By Vernon Flatt

The long-awaited passenger service between Heppner and Arlington was inaugurated Tuesday when Vernon Flatt arrived from Moro with a new truck to be placed on the branch run. It is a combination freight and passenger vehicle so arranged that in lieu of passengers the entire space may be used for freight.

Rooms are provided for eight passengers, seven in the main compartment and one in the cab. There are doors on either side of the passenger space and convenient folding seats fastened underneath the floor. Comfortable cushioned seats are provided and are so arranged that they may be put up out of the way when not in use. A good heating system completes the provision for passenger comfort.

Since the Grayrock line has suspended operations on the Arlington-Fossil run Mr. Flatt is contemplating applying for a license to establish service over there. He is toying with the idea of making the run operative between Fossil and Heppner, possibly including a schedule for Kinzua.

Civic Center To Be Busy Place Next Monday and Tuesday

Plans are moving ahead for the candy making school which is scheduled for November 8 and 9. The school will be conducted in the Civic Center and will be divided into four classes: Monday afternoon from 2 to 4, Monday evening from 7 to 9 and on Tuesday afternoon and evening at the same hours.

HERE ON VISIT

Bob Mollahan spent the past few days at home, having completed his schooling in preparation for service in Uncle Sam's flying forces. Bob said he was scheduled for duty on the coast of Labrador, to which point he would be going at the conclusion of his leave.

Word was received this morning by Mrs. Velma Huebner of the serious illness of her mother Mrs. Orve Brown. Mrs. Brown has been in Portland for several weeks and was stricken with a heart ailment yesterday and was taken to Emanuel hospital early this morning. Her condition is grave.

J. H. Meschede of Portland is serving as relief agent at the Heppner depot of the Union Pacific while Agent Floyd Tolleson is on vacation. Tolleson is spending part of his time hunting birds and elk in this vicinity. Mr. Meschede was accompanied here by his wife and they are staying at the Alex Green home.

Sentence Passed On Trio Monday By Judge Homer Watts

Each Draws Three Year Term; Moyer Taken to Salem

Judge Homer I. Watts came over from Pendleton Monday morning and held a brief session of court for the purpose of disposing of the cases of Herman Gayhart, D. E. McAllister and Melvin Moyer, charged with destruction of personal property, arising from the shooting of a beef cow belonging to Frank Wilkinson.

The men, confronted by law enforcement officials and bound over to the circuit court, signed waivers of grand jury investigation and pled guilty, throwing themselves upon the mercy of the court. McAllister and Gayhart were released upon bail but Moyer was held in jail a short time before the hearing. Gayhart had moved to Idaho and it took some time to get extradition papers through. He appeared here last week and signed the waiver and then returned to Idaho to await word for the date of trial.

Judge Watts gave McAllister and Gayhart three-year terms on probation. Moyer was handed the same term minus the probation because of difficulties he had experienced in meeting terms imposed upon him by the judge relative to non-support of his minor children.

In addition to the sentence, the men will be required to reimburse Mr. Wilkinson for the value of the cow and any other expense he was put to in connection with the case.

Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman left Wednesday with Moyer to place him in the state prison at Salem.

Last Rites Said For Willie Carty

Final rites were said at 10 o'clock a.m. Wednesday at St. Patrick's Catholic church for Willie Carty, 55, whose death occurred Friday night, October 29 at the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton. Rev. Francis McCormack officiated and interment was in the Heppner Masonic cemetery.

Pallbearers were William Killenny, Eddie Sheridan, Glenn Griffith, R. B. Rands, Stephen Thompson and Clyde Bailey.

Mr. Carty was born in County Leitrim, Ireland. He came to this country in young manhood and engaged in the stock business, working with sheep for the most part. He spent most of his life in this country in Gilliam and Morrow counties. He was the younger brother of James, Pat and Joe Carty, all of whom resided in Morrow county for many years and all of whom are dead.

Survivors are two sisters, Mary and Bridgett Carty, both of New York City, and several nieces and nephews residing in this section.

Mrs. Mary Carty, widow of Pat Carty, and son Charles came from Klamath Falls and Mrs. Frank Doherty, a niece, came from Butte, Mont., to attend the funeral. Numerous other relatives and friends from nearby points were also in attendance.

Brownie Troop III Enjoyed Birthday Party Monday P. M.

Brownie troop III enjoyed a birthday party Monday afternoon at the parish house of All Saints Episcopal church. Fifteen little girls and 12 mothers participated in the gala occasion. A short program was given at which time Mrs. Stephen Thompson talked on scouting, dwelling specifically on the Juliet Gordon Law fund. A wishing well in which the girls deposited their pennies—129 of them—afforded much pleasure for all. The fund, named in honor of the founder of girl scouting, is used to promote other Brownie troops.

Mrs. J. W. Farra is the leader of the Brownies and Mrs. Marvin Wightman her assistant. The troop committee is composed of Mrs. Jim Valentine, Mrs. Alvin Casebeer, Mrs. Lucy Peterson, Mrs. Roy Quackenbush and Mrs. Dick Meador. These ladies served refreshments of ice cream, cake and hot chocolate at the conclusion of the afternoon.

All Brownies and Girl Scouts attended morning service at the Church of Christ last Sunday.

HIT-RUN VICTIM

Bill Kennard, tree feller at the Broadfoot mill, was found in the gutter on Riverside street Saturday evening by Marshal Gordon Grady. The man had evidently been struck by a car. Grady took him to a physician where an x-ray revealed that he had suffered a badly broken leg. After the leg was set the Phelps ambulance was called and Kennard was taken to the hospital in Pendleton.

Legion Preparing For Entertainment On Armistice Day

Heppner Post No. 87, American Legion auxiliary are in the throes of preparing for the annual Armistice party which this year will see the Hermiston post and auxiliary participating in the festivities as guests. It is Heppner's year to play host and with the facilities of the Legion hall available for the first time when this traditional meeting takes place nothing short of a scrumptious time will be had, say the local Legionnaires.

There will be the usual parade to lead the crowd to the football game at Rodeo field when the annual civil war "A" squad and Coach Vernon Bohle's partially tamed Mustangs will be resumed. The Mustangs, stinging under the defeat handed them at John Day last Friday will be out to regain the respect and admiration of the home folks and make the visitors look just as bad as possible.

Next thing after the football game will be the banquet at 6 o'clock at the hall. Dancing to the music of Branstetter's orchestra will start at 10 p.m. and end at 2 a.m.

Lt. Alfred Emert Services To Be At Pendleton Monday

Graveside services for 1st Lt. Alfred Emert of Ione will be held at 2 o'clock p.m. Monday, November 8, in the Olive cemetery, Pendleton. Lt. Emert was killed in action July 4, 1944 over France.

Alfred is the son of Mrs. W. A. Emert of Ione and was born on March 13, 1919 in Sprague, Wash. He attended the Ione high school for two years, was graduated from high school in Eymour, Tenn., and was a student at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, for two years. He entered the air corps in 1942, graduated from the air base at Childress, Tex., and went overseas December 1943.

He was married to Ada Garland of Shady Valley, Tenn., in October 1943. A daughter, Alfreda, born August 11, 1944, and the mother survive. They live at Shady Valley. Other survivors include his mother, six brothers and three sisters, as follows: Delbert and Phil of Ione; D. A. Portland; and W. Tokeland, Wash.; Arland E. Petaluma, Calif.; Clarence E. Santa Rosa, Calif.; Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, Arlington; Mrs. J. C. Willis, Portland, and Mrs. Ralph Matthews, Camas Valley, Oregon.

Tom Caldwell of Irrigon was a Heppner visitor the first of the week, attending to business affairs here and getting some medical assistance. He said that voting is more of a job, particularly the counting, over that way since many new people have located in that part of the county.

Legion Auxiliary National President

Mrs. Hubert F. Goode of Portland was named national president of the American Legion auxiliary at the Miami convention, October 22. Her only opponent, Mrs. Archie W. Miller of Cumberland, Pa., withdrew as a candidate.

Mrs. Otto Steinko, rehabilitation chairman, asked that all gifts for the gift shop be left at Heppner Hardware & Electric by November 20. This year many articles will be needed for children, infants to teen-ages; dolls, toys of all kinds, pillow cases, aprons, stockings, ties, towels, books and stationery. The chairman asked that no breakables be included.

Random Thoughts...

It is gratifying to the editor to learn that at least one of our subscribers reads the "old sheet." In the morning's mail came an envelope mailed at Fresno, Calif., and containing a portion of the G-T of October 28 in which appeared a write-up of the Honker-Mustang football contest at Arlington. There are circles around different phrases referring to the scoring that took place—who made the runs, half-time score, etc., but never a mention of the final score.

Now, the fact is that we discovered the lack of mentioning the final score after the paper was off the press and it was too late to do anything about it. Our high school, are doing an OK job but they lack a little in experience and are apt to pass up what the final scores are, or where the games were played, and other details that make a more complete story, the readers as a rule are not aware of these facts and depend upon the newspaper for such information. Added to this oversight is an occasional lack of vigilance on the part of the editor, and this, while unpardonable, does not add to the enlightenment of the reader. So, we are thankful to Don W. Jones of Fresno, Cal., for checking up on us and will close by saying that Heppner won out by a touchdown—final score, 9-13.

Girl Scout week is being observed this week and the Heppner troops are keeping in step with the national trend. They have a window display in the Western Stores window which depicts the projects carried on by Girl Scouts and the display in itself is a worthy representation of the work they follow.

One more week remains of the elk hunting season and there are still numerous red-capped or hatted individuals meandering in and out of town, some on the way to the mountains, others returning home with their kills or empty handed, as the case may be. This section is not advertised as a great hunting or fishing region and the fishing is mostly of a local nature, yet when the deer season opens there is a great swelling of the population for a few days, and this continues thru the pheasant season and the elk season. It is unnecessary to make a bid for this business, yet it comes each fall and local business houses feel the upsurge in currency intake. The eating houses are hard put to meet the rush and one week ago Sunday it was reported that there was not a commercial loaf of bread in town. Early patrons at the restaurants last Monday morning were obliged to eat hotcakes minus the accompaniments of eggs, bacon, ham or sausage as a result of the week-end crush of hunters. And the hunting has been good, too. The deer, pheasant and elk population of the region has been reduced to the point where winter feeding should not be a problem—unless feed has to be hauled to the wildlife over deep snow.

Road Committee In Portland To Meet Highway Officials

Monument Cut-Off To Be Presented For Consideration

A delegation from the Heppner chamber of commerce, headed by Dr. L. D. Tibbles, chairman of the roads and highways committee and including P. W. Mahoney, J. G. Barratt, Frank W. Turner and Orville Smith, and accompanied by Chester Brown, mayor of Monument and representing the northern Grant county communities, left for Portland Wednesday afternoon where this morning the highway commission allotted 15 minutes for presentation of road matters for this area.

The highway committee has been working for some time compiling information relative to the proposed cut-off road to Monument, which would leave the Heppner-Spray highway at the mouth of Chapin creek and reach the north Grant county town with the construction of something like 26 miles of grade. Construction of this stretch of road would bring Monument to within approximately 52 miles of Heppner and provide that region with a much nearer railroad than now exists.

This being national 4-H club week County Agent N. C. Anderson asked for a spot on the program for a representative of the county's clubs. Ronald Baker of Ione was the speaker chosen and he was introduced by Miss Mable Wilson, home demonstration agent and 4-H club leader.

Ronald spoke on "What 4-H club work means to me" and handled his subject in a capable manner, clearly demonstrating that the work being done by the livestock and other groups of teen-agers is making a direct contribution to a program devoted to making better citizens and a stronger America.

Ronald's mother, Mrs. E. Markham Baker, accompanied him and was a guest of the chamber of commerce.

Frank Davis, retiring secretary of the organization—retiring because of leaving here—was presented with a little gift in appreciation of his services to the club and to the community. He and Mrs. Davis have returned to Freewater to make their home.

Stanley Norton fiscal agent for the Umatilla National Forest, was introduced by Glenn Parsons, ranger of the Heppner district.

Prospectors Take District Mythical Crown From H.H.S.

The Heppner Mustangs dropped a decisive tilt to a strong Grant Union eleven at John Day Friday at the rate of 13-6. Thru-out the game the Grant team showed power in all phases of play. Not until the third quarter did the Heppner eleven show its winning power by tying up the ball game after trailing the entire first half following an early TD by the Prospectors.

To start the game the Heppner lads kicked off. After a series of running and punting by both teams, the Prospectors got on a sustained drive consisting of line bucks, end runs, and short passes that didn't end until they had struck pay dirt. The kick for extra point was wide. Score at the end of the first half remained 6-0, though the Grant Union boys threatened again in the second canto.

The third quarter showed more promise for the Mustangs. In the opening minutes a pass from Piper to Waters was complete for 27 yards. This scoring opportunity was stopped and Grant Union took over. After a series of first downs and punts by both teams, Heppner took advantage of a late third canto punt. With a pass from Piper to Gunderson for a gain of 16 yards Ruhl ran the end for Heppner's score. Ruhl's try for punt was no good.

Early in the fourth quarter and after a series of complete passes the Grant boys scored their second marker on a short pass. Their pass for extra point was sawed back and forth. In the final seconds the Mustangs stopped another Prospector drive. Three passes by Piper and a kick by Bergstrom finished Heppner's bid for the district championship which they took from Grant Union last year. Final score for 1947, H 13-0; for 1948 G 13-6.

Boys seeing action: Gunderson, Sumner, Orwick, Smith, Gabriel, Gammell, Waters, Bennett, Piper, Ruhl, B. Bergstrom, Mannars and E. Bergstrom.

Livestock Men of County Participate In Sale at Moro

With Delbert Emert, lone, purchasing both the grand champion and reserve champion Hereford bulls, the third annual Mid-Co Purebred Breeders sale held at Moro on November 1 was highly successful from the standpoint of buyers and demand. The quality of livestock exhibited and shown this year surpassed previous sales. N. C. Anderson county agent, who attended the sale Monday.

Morrow county livestock men, states the county agent, were active in consignments to the show and sale as well as being split-ed bidders. Consignments were made by Kirk Robinson Hereford ranch with two cows and a bull, Floyd Worden with two bulls and a cow and Allen Hughes, with a bull raised as a 4-H club project.

The champions purchased by Mr. Emert will be a great improvement to his high quality commercial herd. This is just another indication of the desire of Morrow county livestock men to build their herds above the average while prices are favorable.

Students Display Warm Interest in Hallowe'en Parties

Four truckloads of high school students, and some of junior high age, participated in the Hallowe'en party sponsored by the Soroptimist club Sunday evening. That was the turnout for the hayride party which was driven to the Buckum cabin about 14 miles up Willow creek. Here in town some 75 "kids" assembled in the basement parlors of the Methodist church, making it necessary to separate the primary and intermediate groups into two units. Rev. J. Palmer Sorlien, Mrs. Sorlien and Mrs. Marvin Wightman managed the party for the younger set.

Trucks for transporting the high school group were provided by Harold Erwin, Bill Barratt, Cliff Dougherty and Emile Groshens, the latter being driven by Harold Becket and Harold Mannars. Seventeen chaperones were in attendance.

The hayride party is told in a fitting manner by Jean Hanna, editor of the Hehisch, student newspaper. She writes: "The students of Heppner High and members of the seventh and eighth grades would like to give their most sincere and whole-hearted thanks to the members of the Soroptimist club who so kindly sponsored the fine Hallowe'en party given for them Sunday night, October 31."

When a member of their club came up to school one day last week, a group of students was picked to represent the student body in deciding if the party would be of interest to the students. After some discussion it was decided that 59 or 60 of the students would probably attend the party. Thinking that this would be a good representation the "go ahead" signal was given.

When the big night rolled around the sky was cloudy and dark, but an enthusiastic group of students was ready and very willing to head for the mountains in the back of the four trucks that stood waiting.

Arriving at the scheduled place four huge bonfires were built where members of the Soroptimist club and students quickly warmed cold hands and feet. Gaiety was everywhere and songs were sung loud and long. Even though the group added up to 110 students there was enough food for everyone to eat to his heart's content, so if there was anyone who came home hungry it certainly was his own fault.

In closing we again wish to express our most sincere appreciation to those who sponsored this party which was something new to students and to townspeople alike.

So thanks again, members of the Soroptimist club, from the students of HHS for such a grand evening.

HEPPNER BOYS WINS IN BETTER FARMING CONTEST

Gerald Bergstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom of Heppner, won second place in the Better Farming contest sponsored by Kiwanis International in the Blue Mountain district. The award of $10 was presented to him before the Heppner high school student body by Jack O'Connor, president of the Heppner chamber of commerce.

Bob Gammell, another chapter member, has been elected treasurer of the Blue Mountain district.

Oregon Goes G.O.P. First Time in Five General Elections

Morrow County on Truman Side, All Other Republican

Tuesday's election brought out one of the great upsets of American voting history when President Harry Truman was returned for another four-year term by what amounted to a landslide, for he not only beat the republican nominee, Thomas E. Dewey, but dragged enough congressmen and senators along with him to make the victory complete.

One of the surprises out this way was that Oregon slipped back into republican ranks. From top to bottom of the ticket it was republican, with only a handful of democrats slipping into legislative posts.

No surprise was sprung here in Morrow county. It followed the trend of the past 16 "long years," presidentially speaking, but the majority was less than common. Truman outspotted Dewey by 87 votes, drawing a total of 838 to his opponent's 751. Wallace tallied 19 and Thurmond 42.

Senator Cordon outdistanced Manley Wilson more than two to one 1012 to 495. Lowell Stockman took Charley Shorb's measure at about the ratio of the two candidates' height—997 to 531.

Doug McKay made a good run against his two opponents in garnering 1014 to 501 for Wallace and 33 for Barnett. For secretary of state, incumbent Earl Newbery walked away from Byron Carney, 1187 to 373. Howard Belton took a safe lead over Walter Pearson, 798 to 667. George Neuner outdistanced William B. Murray 100 votes—756-656.

For state representative—no contest—Giles French being accorded 709 votes. Henry Peterson 1252.

J. G. Barratt received 1317 votes for county judge and Russell Miller 1338 for county commissioner. C. W. Barlow topped the voting with 1377 for county clerk.

The race for sheriff turned out to be less of a contest than it looked to be a week ago. Bauman was 407 votes ahead of Hoskins in the final tally, 1,008 to 601. Dr. A. D. McMudo received 1272 for coroner and Harry Tamblin 858 for rsurveyor. Three hundred seventy-six people wrote in the name of Ralph E. Currin for district attorney.

Three-Day Bridge Series Ends With Tournay Saturday

Saturday evening marked the close of successful three-day school of contract bridge conducted by Sam Gordon, author of Horse Sense Bridge, and sponsored by the Jay-Cee-ettes.

The classes were well attended and much interest evinced. The meetings were conducted in the American Legion hall.

Nine tables were in play at the duplicate bridge tournament the last evening. The results were: First—Mrs. Charles Vaughn and Mrs. Eric Gilliam, north-south; Mrs. Sara McNamer and Mrs. Grace Nickerson, east-west. Second—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Payne, north-south; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick Jr., east-west. Third—Mrs. D. D. Grady and Floyd Jones, tied with Mrs. J. R. Huffman and Harry Tamblin, north-south; Tom Wilson and W. C. Collins, east-west.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. J. R. Huffman, Mrs. Floyd Jones and L. E. Dick Jr.
