

Local People Talk Educational Plans Before Lone P-TA

By Echo Palmateer
The lone P-TA program Wednesday evening, Nov. 10, with Mrs. E. M. Baker in charge, consisted of local speakers who talked on methods of improving the educational systems. The speakers were: E. M. Baker, member of the rural school board who talked on the problems of the board. He stated that good roads would cut the cost of transporting pupils; Garland Swanson, chairman of the lone district, who talked on the problems of maintaining teachers and property; B. C. Forsythe, superintendent of lone schools, who told of the projects that the school and community were carrying thru, such as the turf field, tennis court and the beginning of the swimming pool; Mrs. L. A. McCabe, representing the parents' viewpoint, who gave an interesting talk of parents and teachers.

A discussion on different questions was entered into by most of the members present. Group singing was led by Miss Mary Lund. Refreshments were served in the lunch room by Mrs. Leonard Carlson, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. Henry Peterson and Mrs. Oscar Peterson.
