CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for the beautiful floral offerings and words of sympathy in the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. The many kindnesses shown us during his illness made our cross easier to bear, and gave him the needed strength to cheerfully endure his suffering. Mrs. Quackenbush, Roy, Melba and Phyles, Edna Wilson and family, Wm. Palmer and family. NEW BOOKS AT LIBRARY New books recently placed on the shelves of the Heppner Public Library include Mind and Body, by Dr. Flanden Dunbar, a gift from the Bookworms club; Main Street Merchant (the life story of J. C. Penney) by Norman Bossley; These Are Strange Tales, by Anthony Abbott; The Power and the Glory, by Graham Greene; Behold the Spirit, by Alan W. Watts (the author and his wife were Buddhists until their conversion to Christianity; he is now an Episcopalian priest); Not So Wild a Dream, by Eric Seaver; Wake of the Red Witch, by Garland Roark; Juvenile; "The Brownies," given by the Girl Scouts. Mrs. A. G. Pieper and son Elmer drove to Portland Saturday where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Pieper's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Frad, of that city. Mrs. Frad had been in a coma since Friday, the result of several strokes and other complications. Her physician does not expect her to rally, as she does not even know the family. She is in the Good Samaritan hospital.

Kinzua A. L. Post Among Leaders In Membership Drive

By Elsa M. Leathers The local union members were called to a special meeting Monday evening of the eastern Oregon central district. Manager Clarence Briggs and Representative Larry Carrol were present. After the closed meeting the public was invited to watch the council movie films shown by Mr. Briggs. The rod and gun club held its Thanksgiving turkey shoot Sunday. A large crowd was present. Besides shooting off the turkeys, Bingo was played by young and old. The auxiliary ladies served sandwiches and coffee and pop. They also ran the Bingo game. Glen Jorgenson from the Pendleton forest service office and Glen Parsons from the Heppner office, and a representative from Portland were here one day this week attending to forest service business with the Kinzua Pine Mills management. They also went through the plant. Mrs. Sterling Wham and Mrs. Lyle Ostrander attended the Legion auxiliary conference for presidents and secretaries at Portland last week, returning Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Coleman spent several days at Portland this week attending to business. Joe Fisher stayed with Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Baker. The Marshall Sargent Post 171 of Kinzua is proud to announce that this post went over the top with paid up and new members last week, being among the first in the state to do so. They hope to be in for their share of attention from Oregon Legionnaire circles. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis spent the week end at Lonerock visiting and looking after business at their ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Karl M. Blais of Condon were here Saturday and Sunday evening, checking tickets at the theater with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Wright. The picture shown was "Green Grass of Wyoming." Al Rudd and Joe Hays from Kinzua and Andrew Staig and Mr. Putman of Fossil attended the Royal Arch meeting at Heppner Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Claud England left Sunday night for The Dalles where they will attend to some business before returning home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bowley and children and Darrel Wilson of Condon were in Kinzua Sunday visiting. Both are former Kinzua residents. Mrs. Betty Shell and son Fred went to The Dalles Wednesday to fetch Mrs. Fred Shell and her daughter and Mrs. Zolan Tripp and baby son home from the hospital. Wallace Hendrix, Earl Williams and Sheridan Ledford were in John Day Saturday. A large number of the Kinzua young high school are people and many families attended the high school play at Fossil Friday night. Mrs. Kinard McDaniel went to Lonerock Wednesday afternoon to see her grandson, Melvin, who is ill, and to visit at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dajlas McDaniel. Mrs. Victor Lovgren and children of Heppner came to Kinzua Friday evening, and Mrs. Lovgren and Mrs. Owen Leathers took Mrs. Harlan Adams to John Day Saturday, where she had x-rays taken. They revealed both fractures of her breast and back bone knitting good, and some time near Christmas her cast can be removed and a steel brace put on. Mrs. Adams can be up and about her home now. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore of Camp 5 were at the turkey shoot Sunday. They report the road is quite bad. Bill Litzell is spending the
