

Alien War Brides
Muts Wait 2 Years
Before Naturalization

Two years of residence with their husbands in the United States is the prime requirement for naturalization of alien war brides, the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs was informed this week.

Checking with the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, the state veterans' agency learned that war brides who entered this country under Public Law 271 of the 79th congress, which quota basis of women who mar- authorizes the entry on a non- ried American servicemen over- seas, have a two-year waiting period before they may apply to become citizens.

They must, however, be mar- ried and living with their hus- bands during this time. Divorce, or separation because of death or for other reasons, will cause another year's extension of the waiting period, the immigration bureau said. Citizenship is not compulsory, it was pointed out.

The so-called war bride act ex- pires this December 31, as does the alien fiancée act. Wives or fiancées of servicemen or veter- ans actually must be on United States soil to meet the deadline.

The two-year waiting period for citizenship for fiancées starts after the date of marriage and the presentation of necessary doc- uments to the immigration bu-

FISHING NOT SO GOOD

Dr. J. D. Palmer, P. W. Mahoney and O. G. Haguewood returned the first of the week from Florence where they spent a few days trying their luck at salmon fishing. The luck was not so good, due to stormy weather which kept the waters of the Siletz stirred to the point where the salmon were not biting.

N. C. Fancher of Troutdale was a Heppner visitor Tuesday evening, coming up to attend a meeting of Heppner Lodge No. 89, A. F. & A. M. to assist in giving the MM degree to his brother-in-law, A. A. Scouten. He left for Arlington after the lodge session to make an early train for Troutdale.
