BREAKFAST WAKE-UPS

Having trouble getting the family up these cold mornings? After the gay round of holiday festivities and the luxury of sleeping late, it is hard to get the family back on schedule. One of the best wake-ups we know of to help this situation is to have a hearty appetizing breakfast ready when Dad and the children gather round the table. The savory fragrance of frying bacon or spicy coffeecake wafting from the kitchen through the house will do more to rouse sleepyheads than the most urgent shaking.

With a little planning and forethought breakfast can be changed from a monotonous task to a cheerful friendly gathering. Breakfast is an important meal, too, nutritionally speaking. It should supply one-third of the day's food requirements as well as prepare the body for the day's activities.

As for the breakfast menu, there is really an endless variety if you stop to think about it. Breakfast doesn't have to be fancy, but it should be adequate. Fruit, a hot dish such as cereal, eggs, bacon, hot breads or toast, butter, milk and coffee can be combined in many different ways to make an appetizing meal.

Hot breads are especially tempting these cold mornings, and are very little extra trouble if the ingredients are measured and sifted the night before. Both the recipes below may be prepared this way.

Individual Coffee Cakes

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup melted butter
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cups cake flour, sifted
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 1/4 tsp. salt

Mix dry ingredients. Add beaten eggs, milk and melted butter, mixing quickly. Pour into buttered muffin tins, filling about 2/3 full. Top each muffin with a mixture made with 3 Tbsp. sugar, 1 tsp. cinnamon and 4 Tbsp. chopped nuts. Bake in moderate oven, 375 degrees, 20 to 30 minutes. Yields 12.

Ginger Cheese Muffins

- 2 cups flour
- 3/4 cup baking powder
- 1/4 tsp. soda
- 1/2 tsp. ginger
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 beaten egg
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2-cup molasses
- 4 Tbsp. melted butter
- 2/3 cup grated cheese

Kinzua from Camp 5 after a hail-drozer had bladed the snow off the road Thursday and was attending to business. The logging train and goose has been making daily trips as the railroad is being kept clear of snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Laughlin and Junior and Joann Adams spent Friday afternoon at Heppner having dental work finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Samples took their small son Jerry to The Dalles the first of the week to a doctor. It was learned he was suffering from a blood infection and will be out of school for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis have been visiting at the home of his brother, Homer Davis, the past three days from Lewiston, Idaho. They left Monday to visit at Loneoack and at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Davis. Mr. Davis has just recently been released from the coast guard, his second term.

Manual Designed To Aid Layman In City Judicial Work

A manual designed to aid the layman connected with city judicial work, has been mailed to

Sift dry ingredients together. Beat egg well and gradually add to it the milk, then molasses. Slowly add the liquid mixture to the dry ingredients, stirring constantly. When smooth, add melted shortening, and fold in grated cheese. Half fill greased muffin tins with mixture and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot with butter. Makes 16 muffins.

Municipal Judges, Police Chiefs, and City Attorneys of Oregon Cities of the Oregon State Bar. As an aid to ex officio municipal judges such as city recorders, the manual covers the procedure in making arrests, procedures in court appeals, an explanation of traffic court procedure, and other aids to the layman. The booklet also cites the various city charters which delegate certain police and judicial powers to municipal officers.

Virgil H. Langtry, Chief Deputy City Attorney for Portland and Former Legal and Field Consultant for the League of Oregon Cities was chairman of the committee which assumed chief responsibility for preparation of the manual. Other committee members were: B. D. Iseminger, vice chairman, Pendleton; Alexander G. COAST'S TELEPHONES DOUBLE IN TEN YEARS

How we've made your telephone a more valuable servant than ever... and a better buy too

1. Today you can call twice as many telephones on the Coast as you could ten years ago. To provide service for our growing West, to make it possible for you to reach your new friends over the telephone, we've doubled our system in a decade... from 1,830,000 in the fall of 1938, to more than 3,700,000 today. This increase is more than we added in the previous 60 years.

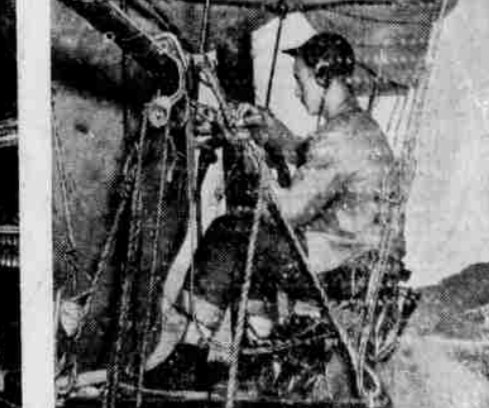

2. Our family had to grow to make this gain. In '38 we numbered some 29,000 men and women. Today there are more than double that number... operators, installers, linemen, plant maintenance men... all the people who make telephone service possible. And training them to do their work for the West was a big job in itself.

4. All these new telephones give you more value from your own telephone. You can call more people... more people can get in touch with you. And it keeps right on being a big bargain. Even in these days of higher prices, a few pennies still buy a telephone call.

3. An amazing number of miles of wire has been added to link these new telephones... 6,000,000 miles of it. New buildings by the hundreds have been built and sensitive equipment installed. Yet we're far from through. For the West is growing still—and it must have good telephone service to help it grow soundly.

Citizens of Morrow County

The City of Lexington invites you to a showing of a film entitled "Our Town Builds An Airport" at the LEXINGTON SCHOOL AUDITORIUM Monday, January 17 at 8 o'clock

The object of this film is to create an interest in airport development. Our port is not finished; some extensions are needed, and there is an opportunity for us to acquire more federal assistance.

We believe the development of the Lexington Airport is of interest to all of Morrow County. In peacetime or in time of war or disaster the air lanes are open, ready to give regular or emergency service.

Our port is established but it needs improvement. We believe if the people of the county fully understand these needs and what a first class airport means to the region they will give the needed support.

Cordially yours,
The City of Lexington
