

A FINE BASKETBALL COURT

When in Monument a couple of weeks ago Lous Lyons took some interior views of the new community school recreation hall. Special emphasis is placed on the basketball court in this picture. It is a standard high school court and has ample room for spectators. The people of the community recently dedicated the building and numerous functions have already been held there.

FROZEN FOOD MAY BE OK

Several women have asked if it is safe to use canned foods that have frozen. Yes, it is safe if the cans are still air tight. However, if it is no longer tightly sealed, the food will spoil quickly after thawing.

break in weak seams of tin cans. So examine the can carefully for leaks and loose lids. Even if there seems to be no leak, it is wise to boil the food 10 to 15 minutes before you taste it.

WASHING WINDOWS—

When the liquid in the cans freezes, it swells. This swelling may push up the cover in some types of jars or may cause a

After the dust storm this last Saturday night, a look through our windows brings the realization that we must get outdoors and wash them. One method is to mix a pail of suds, using a synthetic detergent — Trend, Tide, Dref, etc. A wax applicator with its flat surface is a handy tool to use to apply the suds. Just slip it into the water and rub the window. Then, if you have water under pressure, give the window a spray rinse and let it dry. Many homemakers find this method easy and satisfactory.

Healy-Palmateer Wedding Centers Saturday's Interest

The wedding of Miss Rosetta Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Healy of Heppner and Albert Ted Palmateer, son of Mrs. Echo Palmateer of Ione, was solemnized at a 2 p.m. ceremony Saturday at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church with Rev. Francis McCormack reading the opening service. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Tom Healy, was lovely in a gown of white satin made with sweetheart neckline, fitted scalloped bodice and long-pointed sleeves. Her lace-trimmed, finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. A heart-shaped gold necklace, worn by her mother at her wedding, was the bride's only jewelry. She carried a white orchid on a white prayerbook.

Mrs. Harry O'Donnell, Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink formal frock with matching headpiece and gloves and carried a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations. Billy Healy, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Harry O'Donnell Jr. and James Barnett of Ione.

James Kenny was soloist, accompanied by Miss Marguerite Glavey who also played the wedding marches. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Healy chose a glenn plaid suit with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Palmateer wore a gunmetal grey frock with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. After the bride and groom had cut the first piece of the traditional three-tiered wedding cake, Mrs. William J. Bucknum, aunt of the bride, continued with the cutting of the cake. Mrs. William A. Richards poured and Miss Cecelia Healy of Portland was in charge of the punch. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Charles D. Hodge Jr., Mrs. Russell O'Donnell, Mrs. Rose Francis and Miss Evonne Bleakman. Miss Patty Healy was in charge of the guest book.

The tables were attractively decorated with bouquets of white carnations and daffodils. Following a honeymoon trip, the young couple will be at home at the Palmateer farm near Ione.

Mrs. Palmateer is a graduate of Heppner high school and has been employed locally in the county agent's office as stenographer for the Triple A. Mr. Palmateer is a graduate of Ione high school. He spent three years in the navy and saw some overseas duty in the Pacific during the recent world war. Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kenny and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin, William Cohn and Jay Johnson of Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Monahan of Condon; Mrs. Mike Healy and Mrs. R. B. Rands and daughters of Boardman.

According to word received this week from Mrs. Roy Gentry, her mother, Mrs. Bud Medlock of Okanogan, Wn., passed away in that city February 1 following a long illness. Mrs. Gentry also writes that they expect to return to Heppner to make their home as soon as weather permits in the spring.

The drill team of Willows lodge No. 66, I.O.O.F., of Heppner motored to Lexington the last of the week where they presented ceremonies of the initiatory degree for five candidates. Those making the trip were N. D. Bailey, Lee Howell, Jesse C. Payne, Harold Hill and Manuel Easter. Plans are being made for the district convention of Oddfellows which is to be held in Heppner on February 26 and for which Willows lodge will be host. There will be a 6-30 banquet in the lodge dining room and other features are being arranged.

Following lodge refreshments were served with the Valentine motif being used to decorate the tables. Members of the refreshment committee were Mesdames Katie Cunningham, Sylvia McDaniel, Beulah Barkla and Beryna Shamblin.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Sluyter are the parents of a son, Jeffrey Dean, born February 3 at Emanuel hospital in Portland. Mr. Sluyter motored to Portland Friday to visit his family. He returned to Heppner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bucknum and son departed by motor Monday for Los Angeles where they will make their home. Their apartment in the Devine apartments will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Kenney.

Mrs. W. H. Lewis went to Portland Wednesday by train taking her grandson to the city for a medical check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Scouten returned to Heppner Tuesday evening from a six weeks' sojourn in Miami, Florida, where they were guests of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Scouten. Returning by the southern route, the Scoutens spent several days in New Orleans visiting friends and points of historic interest about that city. In Los Angeles they spent Sunday visiting with William Cocheil who is a patient in a naval hospital near there. Mr. Scouten reports that the citrus crop in southern California is a complete loss due to the recent severe storms in that area.

Mrs. Norah Rasmus has returned from Portland where she spent several days last week attending buyers market.

John C. Hagan motored to White Salmon, Wn., Friday after Mrs. Hagan and the children. Going over, Mr. Hagan found the road in a very hazardous condition because of the deep snow. He reports that he saw at least seven cars off the road between North Dalles and his destination and the ambulance doing a land office business. They returned to Heppner Saturday afternoon.

The Altar Society of St. Patrick's Catholic church is planning a public card party for February 26 at the parish hall. Mrs. Conley Lanham was hostess for the meeting of the Altar Society on Wednesday evening at which time officers for the ensuing year were elected. Mrs. J. D. Palmer, president; Mrs. Dan Hatfield, vice president; Mrs. Russell O'Donnell, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cohn are in San Antonio, Texas, where they are attending the National Woolgrowers' convention. At the close of the convention Mr. and Mrs. Cohn will continue on to New Orleans for a brief visit.

Hostesses for ladies night at the B. P. O. Elks Thursday evening were Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mrs. Sam McMillan and Mrs. Eldon Padberg of Lexington. There were 16 tables of bridge and pinocle in play with Mrs. J. Fred Lucas winning high in bridge and Mrs. Bert Kane high in pinocle. Mrs. Edwin Dick received the door prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duvall of Lexington were business visitors in Heppner Wednesday.
