Weather Fails To Keep Kinzua BB Fans From Tourney

By Elsa M. Leathers Each night of the sub-district tournament at Condon last week a large crowd of basketball fans from both Kinzua and Fossil went to see the boys win the tournament. In spite of the blizzard on Friday night the crowd was large. However, Kinzua was visited by rain when Condon and Mayville had snow. The Kinzua school bus was chartered for the tournament with Marvin Jackson as driver. The trophy was presented on Saturday night and at that time all stars were named. (Sorry no all-star names were available.)

A bridal shower was given at Jeffmore hall Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Harlan Adams, Misses Jean Owens and Carla Pierson were hostesses to Mrs. Owen H. Leathers Jr. The table was beautifully decorated with a hand-crocheted table cloth, yellow and white tapers with yellow, red and white tulips, all in crystal hold-ings. At the table with Mrs. Leathers was her grandmother, Mrs. Tom McClung of Fossil with Mrs. Carl McDaniel of Heppner and Mrs. Harlan Denton pouring. Individual tables were decorated with crepe paper brides and flowers. Door prize was drawn by Mary Ellen Kincaid, and Mrs. Bert Hoover won the prize for the puzzle.

Miss Pierson and Miss Owens are high school girls and they with Bonnie Mortimer and Doris Flynn of Fossil, also high school girls, served the refreshments of sandwiches, jello salad and coffee to 67 guests.

Mrs. Helen Wright and Mrs. Geo. Smith assisted the hostesses. Mrs. Leathers was the recipient of many lovely presents—several wool blankets, a two-plate waffle iron, electric coffee percolator, 12 pieces of stainless steel kitchen utensils, besides sheets, pillow cases, table lamps and lots and lots of beautiful handwork of crochet embroidery with lots of dishes, bath towels and bath mats and rugs.

Mrs. Art Stevens and daughter Smith until the finish of the school year.

A wildlife representative will demonstrate the ways to use Red Squill rat poison at the Ralph Skoube farm Friday, Feb. 25.

Many of the farmers are vouching their young cows for black leg. Stanley Partlow has lost several head from this disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brown spent the week end in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Camp 5 left the first of the week to visit their daughter in Michigan while the camp is closed down.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Ivy and children returned to Kinzua from Heppner, Saturday, where they had been for a few days.

Ralph Moore is spending a few days at home, recovering from having several teeth extracted in Condon, Friday.
