

Cork-Simas Vows Taken Sunday at Monument Gym

By Millie Wilson

Monument's new gymnasium was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony Sunday, February 27 when, before an altar decorated with white and pink roses, Miss Betty Jean Cork, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cork, became the bride of Joe Simas, son of Mrs. Daisy Simas. The Rev. Ernest Brown of John Day read the double ring service. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore gown of white net over white satin and a fingertip length veil. She carried a cascade of red roses tied with white ribbon.

Miss Dorothy Wyland, maid of honor, wore a pale green formal with a corsage of white carnations. Of the bridesmaids, Miss Bertine Leathers wore a yellow formal and Jean Roach wore a blue formal. Each bridesmaid wore a white carnation corsage.

Jack Forrest of Monument was best man, and ushers were Norris Stubbsfield and Clayton Swev. Miss Doris Matteson and Roy Arlet Cork sang "Always." Laurie Wylie sang "Because," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harold Cork.

At the reception in the school auditorium, the bride and groom cut the large three tiered wedding cake decorated with a small bride and groom and wedding bell.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Roy Cork, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Jean DeVore, served the cake while the groom's mother, Mrs. Daisy Simas, and his aunt, Mrs. Laura Simas, poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Simas will be at home in Roseburg where he will be employed. They went to Pendleton on their wedding trip. They plan to leave Monument Wednesday for Roseburg.

Winning their first tournament game in years, the Monument high school basketball team completely snowed under Mitchell in the recent sub-district tourney at John Day. However, the Savages were unable to regain their victory stride against Grant Hi and Mt. Vernon, but managed to land fifth place and were the favorites of the gallery. As a result of their good showing they were awarded a nice bonus check with which they will purchase baseball uniforms and equipment.

Monument is growing. We have the largest enrollment in our schools in the history of the town, and every available house is occupied, besides every vacant house in the surrounding neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Flower are building a new home. This makes the eighth new house in Monument. The Heppner Lumber company has built six and Mr. and Mrs. Warner, one.

There was an all-day meeting of the Columbia Power Cooperative association in Monument on Friday. During the day, Fred Jackson, assisted by Dempsey Boyer, Chet Brown and Emory Moore, signed up easements of right-of-way. A potluck dinner was served at noon. Mr. Jackson gave an interesting talk about his trip to Washington, D. C. Pictures were shown of the Columbia river basin, its different resources and its possibilities as a means of electric power for the northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Milt Morgan attended the funeral of Al Massey last Monday in Heppner.

Tuesday visitors in John Day were Fred Shank, Herman Thompson and Archie Geinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Forrest, Ona May Leathers and Babe Harrison were in John Day from the Monument community on Wednesday. Babe Harrison and Mrs. Forrest consulted their doctors while there.

Bob Leslie was in from Pendleton visiting friends and relatives, also to see his son, Robert Newton, who is being cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cork Sr. However Bob was called back to Pendleton on Wednesday when he received word of the birth of another son. Congratulations, Bob.

Iffie Bagley returned to her home in John Day last Tuesday after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Grace Stritt.

Kenny Rounds, Charles Gilman, Mel Rounds, Tobe Cribbins, Kenny Holmes, Lester McKinney and Johnnie Cox were among those in John Day last Wednesday.

Daisy Simas, Junior Simas, Jean DeVore, Betty Jean Cork, Ouida Cork and Ivan Enright were in John Day on Wednesday.

Dick Schouten, county commissioner from Long Creek, was attending to business matters in town on Wednesday and again on Friday. He also looked over the roads to see how much damage was done by the high water.

Harold and Roy Cork were chopping hay last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Williams and daughter of Echo spent several days visiting with Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chance Wilson.

Chet Brown, district fire warden, George Stritt and Chance Wilson spent Thursday in John Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ferguson from Pendleton spent a week visiting friends and relatives in Monument. Work was suspended for a week on account of the cold weather. They returned to Pendleton on Wednesday.

The SCS directors held a business meeting in the grange hall Thursday evening. Some of the grange members also met and practiced their play which they hope to have ready before too long.

Friday the Columbia Power Co-op association met in Monument for an all-day session with a potluck dinner at noon. Most of the day was spent signing up easements of right-of-way.

Some of those from out of town at the Columbia Power Co-op association meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Engle, Mrs. Conrad Belenbrock and Herman Thompson from Cottonwood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foree, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Asher, James Kent and Tommy Munroe.

Chance Wilson recently received word from Portland that his sister, Helen Knappenberg, had slipped on the icy sidewalks and injured her back. Her many friends will be glad to know she is recovering satisfactorily.

Friends in the Monument community of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swick were sorry to hear that Howard is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. We are all hoping he has a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bleakman are caring for Harold Alford's two children.

Mrs. Mildred Cimmyotti purchased some stock from Bill Settle this week.

Raymond Stowe, nephew of Dave Musgrave from Mt. Vernon is doing some repair work on the garage this week.
