

Former Lexington Teacher Dies at Roseburg Tuesday

By Dolpha Jancy
 Friends were greatly shocked and grieved to learn of the passing of Rodney Elroi Smith on Tuesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were both employed in the Lexington schools last winter and lived in the Barnett apartments. Full military funeral will be held March 4 in Roseburg. Interment will be in the Roseburg cemetery. He leaves to mourn his passing his widow Getta and two small children, one son in the first grade and a small daughter. Janice Brown, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Brown, had the misfortune to fall on a piece of glass, cutting her neck and face quite badly one day last week. She was taken to Hepner where she received first aid and was then rushed to The Dalles hospital where she was given medical attention and surgery, where they remained for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller were renewing acquaintances in Lexington last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Yarnell and three children are moving to Vancouver, Wash., where Mr. Yarnell will be employed. He spent some time last week in that city getting things arranged and purchasing a home for his family. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wallace have purchased the Yarnell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bloodsworth are the proud parents of a baby daughter born last Tuesday night at the Corda Saling home. The young lady tipped the scales at 7 pounds and was named Barbara Ellen. She is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bloodsworth and the first granddaughter of J. F. McMillan of Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Crump and children were visitors at the home of Mrs. Crump's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Breshears over the week end.

Mrs. Mary Edwards and Mrs. George Allyn have been cooking at the school during the illness of Mrs. Elsie Peterson. Mrs. Peterson is much improved but still not up to par since her bout with the high water at her home.

Leonard Munkers is a Portland visitor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. Franklin Cantrell moved into the Christian parsonage one day last week and he has started his ministry here. His two children, a boy and girl, enrolled in the local school.

Mrs. Stella Scott, who has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. K. K. Marshall, since her recent operation, has returned to her home in Ellensburg, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael were Walla Walla visitors one day last week.

The athletic boys are now taking their physical exams before starting baseball which will be the next on the calendar. They play their first baseball game with Mitchell on the local field, April 8.

The Lexington basketball team won four league games which entitled them to play in the tournament in Echo. They lost on Thursday night to Mt. Vernon, 25-27. They lost Friday to Umatilla with a score of 24-32.

The grade school tournament will start Friday afternoon in one with Lexington meeting the Umatilla boys for their first bout.

Bud Marshall returned recently from the navy and is taking his military exams in preparation for attending school and graduating.

The seniors voted Tuesday to wear caps and gowns for graduation with commencement being set for May 27. There are at present two members in the senior class, Franklin Messenger and Jo McMillan.

Cornett Green and William French left Tuesday morning by motor for British Columbia where they will spend several days looking after business matters.
