News From C. A. Office

Homemakers Busy Sewing: At least 65 homemakers in Morrow county will be busy constructing a cotton dress the next two weeks. That number is enrolled in the Cotton Dress Workshop to be conducted in each community by local leaders in the extension units. Those leaders meet Friday, March 11, at the lone Grange hall to receive their first day of training from Mrs. Myrtle Carter, O.S.C. specialist. They will meet again March 18 and 29.

Merry Mixers Meet: Joan Breeding, 13-year-old 4-H club girl with 3 years club experience, will lead the Lexington Merry Mixers 4-H club as president this year. Assisting her as vice president is Betty Lou Messenger and the secretary is Deanna Steagall. There are seven girls enrolled in this club as cooking members and two girls enrolled as clothing members. Mrs. Oscar Breeding is the leader. Attending the Monday meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Messenger and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Breeding. Miss Mabel Wilson led the discussion on living up to our best in 4-H club work.

14 Song Books Gone: Fourteen 4-H club song books, "Oregon Sings Music of the World," are gone out into the county, being used at club meetings and functions. This is a new tiny booklet containing 33 pages of folk songs, religious numbers and fun songs—all with music for the piano. Fresh off the press, these books can be gotten at the county agent's office.

It Is a Sellers Market Now

All the best information points to the fact—the buying public is no longer eagerly seeking merchandise but instead must be invited to buy. This means that the retailer or any establishment with anything to sell must reach the buying public with news of ware and services.

There is one effective medium of reaching the public—the most effective because it is far-reaching and economical—and that is

Newspaper Advertising ...

Your message in a few words will go farther than by any other means. The printed word is permanent. That is why no other type of advertising has supplanted newspaper advertising.

Advertising in the local paper is not a matter of charity to the publisher. It is a business and something to be considered by every individual or firm having something to sell. Give it a fair trial and you will be convinced.
