P-TA At Lexington Serves Banquet To Basketball Squad

By Delpha Jones

The Lexington P-TA entertained the basketball boys and the volleyball girls with a lovely banquet in the lunch room of the school house last Tuesday night. Mr. Tetz of Heppner, county school superintendent, was the guest speaker. The athletic awards were given out to the boys by Mr. Feathers, and to the girls by Miss Gerhartz. The menu consisted of tomato cocktail, pineapple salad, baked ham, potatoes and lemon pie. Coffee and orange juice were the beverages served. The room was decorated with pastel colors and flower displays were made with pussy willows and daffodils.

David Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buchanan, returned home one day last week from the St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton, where he was taken after he had the misfortune to shoot himself in the hand.

The speech festival for the county is being held in Ione with the schools from the county taking part. The sophomore class is entering a play, "Henry's Mail Order Wife," with the following members taking part, Ray Papineau, David Buchanan, Johnny Edwards, Floyd Breeding, Patty Masjeske and Aileen Shannon. There will be other high school students taking part in a panel discussion and different speeches. Lexington has joined the Morrow County Baseball league this year with the first game being played at Umatilla. The boys are to be the proud possessors of new baseball suits which have been ordered. These are grey and orange, with the satin caps to match.

Lexington Music night will be March 25 with a band concert and various other numbers scheduled for that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Feathers and family spent the week end in Clackamas where they visited Mrs. Feathers' parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Kellogg.

Mr. and Mrs. Groves and small daughter motored to Salem one day last week with Mrs. Groves remaining in that city for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Way and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ledbetter of Bendleton were visitors at the K. K. Marshall home last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and children motored to La Grande and Union Sunday where they visited relatives, Mrs. Rhoda Jones, mother of Mr. Jones, returned home with them for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Underwood of Forest Grove were visitors at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Harra were the Dalles visitors Friday of last week where they visited their daughter Patty and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Forsythe and family are now living at the airport in a trailer house. They moved there from the Red Leonard apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Doppmaiter of Portland and Mrs. Virginia Miller were in Lexington Tuesday looking after business interests here. While here they visited at the Dona Barnett and Trina Parker home.

French Reviews the Legislature

At the end of the ninth week the picture that may be made by the 45th Oregon legislature begins to take shape. For days it was like scratching a child on a blank piece of paper.

There has been no interest in making new taxes and unless there is dire necessity there will be none. So far there has been no desire to cut the budget which is expected to climb to $125,000,000 or more. Whether the budget will be cut, or new taxes levied or the state's money and credit used to the hilt is not so far apparent. Perhaps neither will be done which will make of the 1951 legislature something to evade if possible.

In reality there are not many new kinds of taxes to levy in Oregon which will not stand for major levies because of the people who may vote on them. Little taxes would be of little avail.

The highway program will be out this week and it is designed to raise more money for roads. There will be an additional cent on the gas tax and some increase in license fees. Both are expected to pass with little trouble because roads are in bad shape—the winter having increased need for repair. Trucks will pay more and this will likely include farmer trucks, for, say the highway committee, farmers should pay their part for better roads.

The senate killed attempts by the fishermen to permit use of gear voted out by the people last fall and this means that fixed gear, traps, and set nets will not be used. Washington fishermen may get some good bargains in fishing equipment or some new fishermen.

There has been the usual passage of legislation permitting new boards and commissions, new regulations for more people in the state like the contractors' bill which would levy a license on all those who might want to build or repair houses. Poor construction of veterans' houses is given as the reason but rural members may be able to prevent licensing of all building workmen. Such things are a part of our changing governmental philosophy which puts the government in everybody's business.

Evidence that the members are getting ready to go home is found in the anxiety with which members discuss the pleasant weather and talk about getting back to the farm or out in the garden, and the pleasure they take in beating a bill occasionally instead of sending it back to committee in a burst of politeness. When they all get the butcher's complex it is time for the session to end.

The urge for a cigarette tax combined with a fair trade bill meets little response although a man has been working for that for weeks and the bills are in. Whether the state should arrange a four-cent raise in the price of cigarettes in order to get a two-cent tax usually meets a cold expression on the part of the legislators. Perhaps it can be connected with the bonus bill.
