

Boardman Women Form Garden Club Monday Evening

By Mrs Flossie Coats

Mrs. Harry Andrews, Hermiton, district president of Blue Mountain Federation of Garden Clubs, organized a garden club in Boardman Monday evening, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Glen Carpenter. Officers elected were: President, Mrs. Chas. Anderson; vice chairman, Mrs. Leo Root; secretary, Mrs. Nathan Thorpe; and treasurer, Mrs. Joe Potts. The next meeting will be Thursday, March 31, at 2 p.m. at Mrs. Thorpe's home. All ladies interested please come. Everyone welcome. Miss Florence Andrews accompanied her mother to Boardman.

Ronald Black, agriculture teacher, and the local FFA chapter motored to Pendleton Friday and Saturday, attending the Blue Mountain district FFA parliamentary, public speaking and shop contests. The parliamentary team is composed of Bob Sear, president; Keith Tannehill, vice president; Peter Cassidy, secretary; Michael Cassidy, treasurer; and Donald Gillespie, reporter. This took place Friday. Keith Tannehill placed first in the spelling contest Friday evening. Placing first in the shop contest from Boardman Saturday were Donald Gillespie in tool identification, Michael Cassidy in rope work, Harold Marlow in forge work, with Bob Sear placing second in soldering. Attending from Boardman chapter were Tannehill, Sear, Rogers, Robinson, P. Cassidy, M. Cassidy, Gillespie, Shattuck, Palmer, Barham, D. Marlow, Harold Marlow, Calif. Ball, Fussell, Earwood and Edes.

The Boardman school students, 5th grade through the high, motored to Lone Friday to attend the annual Morrow County Speech festival. The high school entered a one-act play, "Faint Heart Never Won a Fair Lady." The cast of characters included Doris Landers, Mrs. Shushington;

Mary Ann Rands, Nellie Shushington; Delmer Hug as Elmer Quackenbush. The following entries were from the grade school: Humorous poem, Marie Potts and Grace Miller; reading, prose, Charlotte Graham, Georgia Landers; reading poetry, Yvonne Rasmussen, Marlene Fisk; story telling, Jack Mulligan and Eldon Wilson. Winners to be announced later in the week.

Mrs. Clara Gertson of Heppner was a dinner guest at the W. L. Blann home Wednesday of last week.

Guests several days last week at the Leroy Fussell home were Mrs. Fussell's father, Will Cochran, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cochran, all of Eugene.

Friends will be happy to hear the Wm. Lilly family is returning to Barnhart, near Pendleton. The Lillys have been at Union Junction the past two years where Mr. Lilly was section foreman.

Mrs. George Brune, nee Audree Wilson, and small daughter Toni spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Wilson.

Mrs. Chas. Wolley and daughter Marcia visited a few days last week with relatives in St. Helens.

Mrs. Delbert Carpenter and sons are caring for the camp cabins at Buck's Corner for Mr. and Mrs. Orville Carpenter while they are in Spokane.

Sunday dinner guests at the W. L. Blann home were Mr. and Mrs. Claud Clark of Hermiston. Mrs. N. A. Macomber spent the week end in Pendleton with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pettes, gong Friday. While there the family celebrated young Beverly's birthday Sunday, March 20. Mr. Macomber motored to Pendleton Sunday for his wife.

Stanley Waldron of Tillamook is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waldron.

Week end guests at the Guy Ferguson home were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ferguson of Richland.

Darwin Gillespie, Boardman school coach, motored to Eugene for the week end with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Root motored to Arlington Sunday and were dinner guests of Mrs. Root's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber.

THE AMERICAN WAY

Lefty Swings a Wicked Pick

Monument People Set Date To Clean Town's Cemetery

By Millie Wilson

The MMM club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ella Durst with May de Ette Hinton as co-hostess. The refreshments served were salad, sandwiches, punch and coffee. At the business meeting, the cleaning of the cemetery was discussed. It was decided to get together on Saturday, March 26, and clean it. Those not able to go to the cemetery will see to making the coffee and serving the potluck dinner in the grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Manhan have moved into Daisy Simas' house. Mr. Manhan will work in the woods for the Big 4 Lumber company.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Howard Swick that Howard is much improved and is home.

Sunday afternoon guests of the Coats and Gillespie families were County Clerk and Mrs. Chas. Barlow of Heppner. Mrs. Caroline Dickman, who has spent the past several months with her aunts, Mrs. Eva Warner and Mrs. Adeline Dart, left for Portland where she will meet Mr. Dickman for a visit. The Dickmans' home is in Los Angeles. Mrs. Lee Harwood is staying with Mrs. Warner while Mrs. Dickman is absent.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tannehill over the week end were their son, Clyde Tannehill, and Miss Betty Hult of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McClellan and family, Edward, Gary and Rosemary of Portland, were visitors one day at the home of McClellan's step-father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kunze. Edward is having his spring vacation from college.

Neil Wooley is going around this week with a badly infected hand due to running a nail into his hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Gillespie motored to Hermiston Monday. Nick Taylor, student at U. of O., arrived home Sunday for the spring vacation which he is spending with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Algy Taylor. Miss Jeann Young will arrive Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week at Taylors.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson celebrated their 17th wedding anniversary Saturday and Sunday by being entertained at dinner, Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Briggs, with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyss as guests, and Sunday at the Ray Browns' for dinner with the same group. Aaron Agee, who has been visiting friends on the project, left Tuesday for Mikkalto to spend a couple of weeks with his daughter.

will soon be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hanson who have spent most of the winter in Portland are home again in time for the salmon fishing.

Emory Moore and daughter Darlene and Mr. and Mrs. Chance Wilson were seen on the streets of Heppner last Monday.

Harlan Shank has started work on his new store. His brother, Tommy, is helping him.

Ann Johns accompanied by Otis Stubblefield motored to John Day on Wednesday.

Cris Hamilton was a business visitor in the Court Rock vicinity last Wednesday.

On March 17 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johns, Mrs. Fred Shanks and Tommy Shanks drove to the LS ranch for dinner with Fred Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mundy and Deb Bellenbroek. The dinner was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shanks' 19th wedding anniversary.

On March 15 Nora Boyer and Jessie Gamble were hostesses for a birthday party honoring Minnie Gamble and Linnie Gilman. After a delicious buffet dinner, dancing of old time square dances was enjoyed. The honorees were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Capon, Mr. and Mrs. George Capon, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ricken, Margaret Elder, Ethel Scriver, Darlene Moore, Norris Stubblefield, Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Emory and Stanley Boyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sveek were in town last Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Rho Blesman from Top met their daughter, Mrs. Marvin Sandler, at Hermiston last week. Mr. Sandler went on to Port Orford with their household furnishings. The Sadders will make their home in Port Orford where Mr. Sandler has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ottenger left last Monday for Cottage Grove where they will make their home. Mr. Ottenger logged for the Powell mill for awhile.

W. E. Eljer has been in town representing the Singer Sewing Machine company. He serviced machines for Ethel Leathers and Lydia Capon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patterson and daughter Phillips have returned from an extended visit in Bellingham, Wash.

"Sweet Adeline," a two-act play given by the men of the Monument grange in Monument's gym on March 19, was a huge success and a lot of praise should be given to the members of the play cast. It was followed by a dance. The Elmrock Sorenaders furnished the music. Midnight supper was served by the HEC women.

Mrs. Merrill Jones and son, Bucky Morris, from Bend were here this week visiting friends and relatives. They also attended the play and dance on Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Holmes gave a dinner Sunday evening honoring

Kinzua Baseball Team Preparing For 1949 Season

By Elsa M. Leathers

The American Legion gave a banquet at the Jeffmore hall on Monday evening in honor of the baseball team of last year. Mr. and Mrs. George Close and Mr. and Mrs. Claud England were hosts. Mr. Close was the first manager of the team. He was master of ceremonies. At this time Ed Wham was presented a fishing creel for all round best sportsman, from the Kinzua Pine Mills Mercantile company. Lester Halverson was given a fishing rod by the pastime for the best batting average. The team presented their manager, Joe Hays, with a hassock. The Kinzua team this year has all new suits.

The first practice was this week end with a good turnout. Three shifts of men started clearing the pond Friday morning and finished in time so no time was lost in any department of the mill. Carl Coleman's crew from Camp 5 was here.

Joe Hays was rushed to The Dalles hospital Friday morning by ambulance. He is expected to return home the last of this week.

Friends and schoolmates are extending their sympathies to Mr. and Mrs. David Peterson Sr. and David Jr. Their son Glen who has been ill and hospitalized at Portland since November passed away suddenly Friday morning when his mother had just arrived to visit him. He was a sophomore in high school. Funeral services were held at Condon Tuesday afternoon with Arthur Thomas, James Walker Jr., Carl Coleman Jr. and David Phillips and two boys from Condon as pallbearers. Interment was in a Portland cemetery. A large number of friends and students attended the funeral. Glen was a member of the DeMolay of Heppner.

George Close attended the directors meeting of the REA at Long Creek on Tuesday.

The Boy Scouts are sponsoring an old-time dance Saturday evening with Samples Stringed orchestra making music.

Bert Greenfield who was in the members of the play cast and their wives. Everyone reported a very enjoyable evening.

Sheriff Calhoun from Canyon City was seen on our streets last Saturday.

Powell's mill down the river started operations this week. Mr. and Mrs. John Simas sold their apartment house to Daisy Simas this week.

Daisy Simas, Laura Simas and Joava Enright were business visitors in John Day on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Round returned home Saturday after a week's stay in John Day.

jured some ten days ago was able to return to work Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis and daughter spent the week end at Lone Rock. Mr. Davis and brother Carrol of Lone Rock spent Saturday hauling lumber to the Davis ranch.

Mrs. Lewis Wetzell returned to her home from The Dalles hospital. Her tiny son is in the incubator yet and it will be some time before they can bring him home.

George Close played and sang with the Samples over KPM Sunday afternoon. This was the last broadcast for some time. The three small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brogdon also put on a number.

Mrs. Red Hulett of Portland was visiting her husband here over the week end, and also calling on friends. The Hulett's lived here during the war, before moving to Portland.

Ezra Adkins has returned to Kinzua to work. He was employed here for years but had moved to Dayville about three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Hadley and son were visiting here Saturday evening from Fossil. They are expecting Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hadley home soon. The Hadleys had started to California to shear sheep and Mr. Hadley was taken ill with rheumatism and has been at Soap Lake doctoring.

Bill Gilbert of Camp 5 who was injured some time ago and lost a foot is about on crutches and expects to have an artificial foot soon. He will have employment here and moved here this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Otto and family moved on Friday to Joseph where he bought a trucking business and also a home. The daughter Joan will go to high school at Milton.

Jerry Rood went to Portland over the week end to consult his doctor about the infection on his hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gubser and daughter of Condon visited Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jobe Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore were attending to business at Condon Friday to bring Mrs. Bird home, teeth extracted.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Graham took their son Dick to Arlington Sunday so he could return to The Dalles for school. He had spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and children returned to their home at Vancouver, Wash., after visiting here for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bird and Howard Bird went to Portland on Friday to bring Mrs. Bird home. She has been doctoring there for some time.

Kinard McDaniel visited his son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas McDaniel and son, of Lonereck over the week end.

Paul Munsey of Portland is visiting at the Sterling Whams'. Mr. Munsey was a foreman here for several years before moving to Portland.

COMING

Lee GRABEL MASTER MAGICIAN AND WONDER SHOW

HELENE GRABEL

Melodious Music

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
Monday, April 4 -- 8 P. M.
Admission 75c

Our Mr. G. W. Boyd

Representative of W. Price & Co. our famous tailors

Will be in our store SATURDAY APRIL 2

With a complete new line of Made-to-Measure CLOTHES for men and women

Delivery now or later

Hundreds of new Spring and Summer samples to choose from—many in full pieces—reasonably priced.

Ed. V. Price & Co. tailored-to-order clothes are authoritatively styled, beautifully tailored and made just for you—to your own personal requirements.

We invite you to come in during this showing—no obligation.

WILSON'S MEN'S WEAR
The Store of Personal Service

MAKE YOUR KITCHEN GOOD LOOKING WITH TYLE-BORD PASTEL PANELS

Family and friends will enjoy the sparkling, colorful atmosphere that TYLE-BORD brings into your home. TYLE-BORD's slick, plastic finish cleans as easily as a china dish.

Easy to Apply

Anyone handy with tools will find TYLE-BORD easy to apply over old walls or in new construction. It is ideal to brighten kitchens, bathrooms, playrooms; wherever colorful, lasting walls are desired.

Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co.

Fast, Economical GAINS

Larro Cattle Supplement provides proteins and other nutrients required for quick profitable gains and top market bloom and finish. Furnishes carbohydrates, vitamins, and trace elements cattle need to economically and efficiently utilize your grains. Excellent for cattle in the feed lot.

Larro 32% CATTLE SUPPLEMENT Farm-tested

Morrow County Grain Growers, Inc.
Heppner - - - Lexington

Rediform Salesbooks

YOU can handle MORE customers easily, quickly, accurately with efficiently designed Salesbooks

Select from an unusually wide variety of sizes and styles for every business

Get in touch with your local dealer today

For That Easter Ensemble!

Top your Easter outfit with one of our extra becoming Spring bonnets . . .

You will head the Easter Parade if you choose your entire ensemble from our well selected stock.

Add the proper touch with a pair of matching

Gloves --
An elegant line in White, Gray, Green, Brown and Black.

Handbags --
To complement the ensemble . . . A nice assortment in a variety of colors . . .

We are Proud of Our Line of SPRING SUITS

Smart, versatile garments to take you everywhere . . . unbeatable values in desirable new styles.

Norah's Shop