

WINS STATE HONOR
 Carolyn Sparks, niece of Ervin Anderson of Heppler and granddaughter of Mrs. Nellie Anderson of Hermiston, was one of a group of eight girls awarded the state degree at a state meeting of Future Homemakers of America held recently at Oregon State college. This is a signal honor for members of the F.H.A. Carolyn, daughter of Lee Sparks of Gilliam county, is a student at McLaughlin high school, Milton-Freewater.

P-TA MEETING 13TH
 The regular meeting of the Parent Teachers association which will be April 13 in the high school auditorium, should be attended by every parent and every friend of the school. The subject chosen is "Do Adults Need Education?" Mr. Teitz will again explain the importance of the budget meeting to be held April 18. At this time we are given the privilege of voting on the county-wide school budget. Another feature of the program will be a court of honor conducted by the local Boy Scout troop.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE NETS $1,886.01 UP TO PRESENT
 Receipts of $1,886.01 are reported by Frank W. Turner, finance chairman of the annual Red Cross membership drive. This is considerably over the quota set up for this year locally. The funds collected represent the entire county, excepting in one or two instances where workers have not turned in their collections. Turner expects the total to go well above $1,900 by the time returns are all in.

Dr. J. D. Palmer and family enjoyed a week-end visit from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Palmer of Vancouver, Wash., who came Friday and remained until Monday morning. Seeing the plant of the Heppler Lumber company as they drove in, the elder Palmers were somewhat mystified about the log supply and part of their entertainment while here was a trip to the mountains to see the tall trees grow.

Business visitors in Heppler today from Irigoin were D. J. Phillips and Ralph W. Lawson, who had matters to attend to at the courthouse.

 Z. Franklin Cantrell, minister.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MIRT E. HARRIS
 Memorial services for Mirt E. Harris, district manager for the Standard Oil company, whose death occurred March 23 at Condon, were held at the Congregational church in that city at 1 o'clock p.m. Saturday, March 26. The Rev. W. Thomas Applebee, assisted by officers of Heppler lodge No. 358, B. P. O. E., officiated. Interment was on the following Tuesday at Tacoma, Wash.
 A native Oregonian, Mr. Harris was born June 17, 1890 at Lakeview, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mart Harris. He received most of his education in Tacoma. While working in western Washington he met Miss Edna Lindholm and married her in Seattle in 1908. The following year their only son, Martin, was born.
 Mr. Harris went to work for the Standard Oil company in 1922 and in 1938 he and Mrs. Harris came to live in Condon, where he was stationed as sales representative of the company. He was a member of Heppler lodge No. 358, B. P. O. E., and of the Knights of Pythias.

It is with mixed emotions that we announce to the public that we have sold the Phelps Funeral Home and for a time at least we will be away from Heppler.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Creswick of Baker have purchased the establishment and have taken immediate possession. We bespeak for them the same friendly relations with the people of Morrow County which we have enjoyed and for which we are grateful.
