

Mill Opening Highlights News From Monument This Week

By Mrs. Millie Wilson

The people of Monument have the Heppner chamber of commerce to thank for a grand opening of the Big Four Lumber company's mill last Monday afternoon.

About 20 cars from Heppner drove over and brought the Heppner school band, which was greatly enjoyed by everyone. Heppner should indeed be proud of their talented young folk. Much credit should also be given the director, Robert Collins.

O. G. Crawford, editor of the Heppner Gazette Times and president of the Heppner chamber of commerce, acted as master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers. Judge Garnet Barratt gave a resume of pioneer days in Monument and the changes that have taken place in the last 40 or 45 years. He also extended greetings from Morrow county to the people of Monument.

Henry Tetz, Morrow county public school administrator, spoke of the appropriate name given Monument and in the Big Four Lumber company's mill another monument is being erected.

Dempsey Boyer, local merchant, was asked to say a few words. He very ably extended greetings from the people of Monument to the people of Heppner and to the Heppner school band.

After the speeches the Big Four treated everyone to coke and pop. The writer did not know every one that was present but would like to list a few that were known: Judge and Mrs. J. G. Barratt; Ralph I. Thompson, county commissioner; Henry E. Tetz, school administrator; Nelson Anderson, county agent; Miss Mabel Wilson, home demonstration agent; O. G. Crawford, editor and publisher; Orville Smith, manager Heppner Lumber company, and Mrs. Smith; Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, Dr. A. D. McMurdock, Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Tibbles and two sons, Frank W. Tuner, Len L. Gilliam, Floyd Tolleson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Becket, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Add Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes and son Jim and Mrs. Henderson Stout, Louis Lyons, Mrs. Esie Walker, Mrs. Rufus Pieper, Mrs. Carl Bergstrom and others whose names we did not learn.

Jack Loyd, manager of the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company plant at Heppner, hauled the band instruments over in the company pickup.

All in all a very pleasant afternoon was spent and we sincerely hope the citizens of Heppner will again visit before too long.

The ladies HEC club met last Wednesday at the home of Lois Bleakman, with Babe Harrison as co-hostess. A nice crowd attended and a lovely time was had by everyone. During the business meeting the question of a suitable present to be given our fellow granagers, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Farrans who recently lost their home by fire, was discussed. The matter of giving them a household shower was also a topic of discussion. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lesley recently sold their home in Monument to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Page. They drove to John Day Tuesday to complete the transaction.

Spray's baseball team played Monument on the home diamond last Thursday. Monument was again victorious with a score of 5-4. The teams of the two towns are evenly matched, which makes an interesting game for the spectators.

The MMM club met last Thursday at the new home of Lydia Capon. It was one of the outstanding meetings of the year, with the record breaking attendance of 27 adults and 11 children. Besides the club meeting the party celebrated Donnie's birthday. He received many nice presents. Mrs. Capon also received some presents for her new home. Mrs. Clara Strecker was co-hostess. Delicious refreshments of jello, whipped cream, cake, coffee and punch were served with Mrs. Capon's mother, Mrs. Richen, pouring, and Mrs. Janice Cork helping in the serving. All in all a very pleasant afternoon was spent.

Mrs. Ida Bleakman helped Mrs. Chance Wilson with her work the first of the week.

Doc Hinton and his son Boyd left for Portland early Wednesday. Mr. Hinton goes for medical aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Gilman bought a new touring car from Ciss Hamilton the first part of the week.

Ethel Schafer spent a few days visiting at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cupper.

Earl Sweet installed a new Goldspot in his pasture Sunday.

Mrs. Lynn Forrest made two trips to John Day last week to consult her doctor.

The Mother's Day program at the church Sunday morning was well attended and a pleasant morning was had by all. Mrs. Mary Marcus received a gift from the MMM club for being the oldest mother in church, and Mrs. Twila Cummings received one as the youngest mother there. The gifts were presented by Mrs. Maud Harris. The special numbers given by the junior and high school choirs were appreciated by everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. Milt Morgan had their place surveyed Sunday. They also celebrated Mother's Day by branding calves.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Massey were visiting relatives on Monday as well as taking in the opening day at the Big Four Lumber Company mill.

Mrs. Nora Boyer returned from the hospital in The Dalles Saturday. She is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Gilman Monday.

Glenn B. Parson, district ranger, spent Monday night in Monument.

George Stirlitt left Monday for John Day where he expects to work in the forest this summer.

Junior Stockman's Club Meets
The Junior Stockman's club met at M. R. Wightman's May 8 at 2 p. m. The meeting was called to order by the secretary, Joanne Wilson, because of the absence of our president and vice president. Peggy Wightman showed her ewe lamb, Jimmy and Marvin Wightman showed their calves and weighed them. Refreshments were served.

Joan Marie Graham, Reporter Meeting at the county agent's office on Saturday, May 7, representatives of the local REA cooperative and home extension units outlined a program of education for farm people who will be using electricity from REA within the next few months.

Charles W. Smith, assistant director, Oregon State college was present to discuss with the group assistance that could be offered from the college and the extension service.

June 9 was the date selected for the meeting. Household wiring, REA specifications, use of electrical appliances and labor saving devices with electricity and home lighting are among the subjects which will be discussed.

Drawings that show when grass silage is "just right" are contained in a new OSC extension circular, number 531, entitled "Good Silage is not Too Wet nor TOO DRY—But Just Right". This handy four-page folder is now available through this office.

When grass silage is made correctly, the circular shows, a handful when clenched in the hand, then released, will spring slowly apart. There is also a slight feeling of moisture in the hand. Grass silage made thus contains about 30 percent dry matter and is just right for good silage.

Preservatives, storage, crops to use, and time of harvest are also briefly covered in the folder.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Nichols and sons of Termination were lone visitors Saturday.

Miss Lillian Hubbard is working at the Orville Smith home in Heppner.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How Would You Say It?

Curley Lawson's cousin from back East and a few of us got talking when he was here visiting, and I couldn't help noticing how different he said things.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement almost killed me." "You mean sack of cement?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interrupts young Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South, "He means a 'poke of cement.'"

It was good for a chuckle, anyway. Bag, sack or poke—we know what he was trying to say. It just depends on where you are in the U. S., which way sounds right.

From where I sit, whenever we criticize someone for sounding funny to us, we ought to think how we sound to them. It's the same as choosing your liquid refreshment. I'm accustomed to a moderate glass of beer—you may like ginger ale—but who's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!

The Life of Riley
William Bendix, James Gleason, Rosemary DeCamp, Bill Goodwin, Beulah Bondi, Meg Randall

Here is one of the funniest, most broadly appealing comedies of the season, good-humored, sentimental and clean. Thanks to William Bendix (and who in these United States hasn't laughed over him in his radio characterization of Riley?) this film hits the spot solidly!

Sunday, May 15, is I AM AN AMERICAN DAY, in observance of this land of freedom and opportunity for all!

A good story of the tight racket, it is rough and tough in spots, with a certain amount of healthy tension, and then again it tempers off to a romantic and well-paced presentation.

Thursday-Friday-Saturday, May 19-20-21

The Hills of Home
Edmund Gwenn, Donald Crisp, Tom Drake, Reginald Owen, Janet Leigh

Beautifully filmed in Technicolor, this chapter in the life of Lassie (a working dog who doesn't like to get his feet wet) adds up to excellent family entertainment.
