Griffith - Haugen Vows Spoken in Portland Church

Miss June Janet Griffith, daughter of Mrs. Elmer Griffith of Morgan, was married to Dwight E. Haugen, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Haugen of Portland at the Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church 11:30 p. m. Friday June 10. Rev. Robert K. Russell officiated.

George L. Griffith gave his sister in marriage. She wore a white satin gown with lace panels, Victorian collar and a train. Her bonnet was of matching satin holding in place a fingertip veil edged with lace. She carried a prayer book with a white orchid and streamers with white sweet peas. Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a blush pink organza dress. The bridesmaids, Miss Nina Kopp of La Grande and Miss Dorothy Sharpe of Portland, wore yellow and green organza frocks. All carried old-fashioned nosegays, with head-dresses of matching sweet peas. Mrs. Griffith wore a navy blue ensemble with pink and blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses. Mrs. Haugen wore a black and white dress with black accessories and a corsage of white iris.

Dennis Ferretta of Corvallis was best man and James Conroy and James Hansen, both of Portland, were ushers. All three were fraternity brothers of the groom at Oregon State college.

Miss Margaret Wood of Portland sang "Because" and "At Dawn." The church was decorated with white gladioli, delphinium, pink peonies and white stock. Miss Lois Howk, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles. She wore a pink frock.

A reception was held in the church parlor, with Miss Anna Rietmann in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Edna Mather, aunt of the groom, cut the cake after the bride and groom cut the first piece. Miss Dorothy Sharpe poured the punch.

The bride's going away suit was toast shade with beige accessories and her orchid. After a honeymoon to San Francisco they will be at home in Portland. Both are graduates of Oregon State college and Mrs. Haugen is a graduate of the lone school.
