Barnett-Aune Vows Spoken at Calvary Temple in Seattle

Miss Mary Helen Barnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Barnett of Ione was married to Vernon Aune at the Calvary Temple in Seattle, at 8:30 p. m. July 2, with the Rev. Shelby Graves of Heppner officiating, assisted by the Rev. Watson Argue. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin dress with a fingertip veil held by a crown. She carried an orchid with stephanotis. Mrs. William Vaughn was matron of honor and Mrs. Leslie Parker and Mrs. Roy Johnson were bridesmaids. They wore organza pastel dresses with matching head dress and carried baskets of sweet peas. Rodney Stone was best man and James Barnett and Roy Johnson ushered. Miss Aileen Frost played the pipe organ. Mrs. Jack Reasoner sang and Miss Barbara Shepherdson played the violin. It was a double ring ceremony with ring bearer, flower girl, candlelighters and two little nephews of the groom leading the procession. Mrs. Barnett went gray with an orchid. The groom's mother wore blue with an orchid.

A reception was held in the basement of the church following the ceremony.

The young couple went on a trip to Vancouver, B. C. Her going away suit was light blue with white accessories. They will make their home in Seattle where Mr. Aune works in a printing shop. Mrs. Aune attended the Ione schools and a Bible institute in Seattle.
