Barlow-Ball Vows Spoken Saturday at Boardman Church

By MRS. FLOSSIE COATS
The wedding of Miss Chloe Barlow, daughter of Mrs. Crystal Barlow, of Pendleton, Oregon, to Albert Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ball Sr., was a very pretty candlelight ceremony at the Boardman Community Church Saturday evening 7:30 p. m. July 9, the Rev. Charles Eble performing the ceremony.

The bride's wedding gown was her high school graduating, full length dress of white nylon net over satin, with long sleeves and high neck line. She wore a fingertip veil of nylon net, made by her mother, and carried a white corsage with streamers of pink roses and carnations, the bride being one of her Grandmothers, Ferguson's and a gift to the bride. She was given in marriage by her mother. Maid of honor was Miss Maxine Ely. Bridesmaids were Miss Ernaelle Peck and Mary Ann Ravids, each in full length gowns of pastel shades and carrying corsages of carnations. Little Henna Ely, sister of Miss Maxine Ely, was flower girl, and Dicky Lilly of Burnhart was ring bearer.

Russell DeMauro of Pendleton was best man, Delbert and Roy Ball Jr., brothers of the groom and Eldon Lilly of LaGrande were ushers.

Mrs. Russell DeMauro of Pendleton sang two numbers, "Because" and "I Love You Truly", accompanied by Miss Mildred Miller, who also played the wedding marches.

The two kneeling pillows, the ring pillow and the flower basket were of white satin with ruffles of nylon net, all handwork of the bride's mother.

At the reception in the grange hall the bride and groom cut the first piece of a beautifully decorated three tiered wedding cake. Finishing the cutting and serving was Mrs. Elvin Ely. Pouring was Mrs. Russell Miller, cousin of the groom. Mrs. Seth Russell and Mrs. Ronald Black, Jr. in charge of the guest book was Mrs. Claude Coats, and the gifts was Mrs. Zeal Gillespie, aunts of the bride. Assisting with the serving were Maxine Ely, Mary Ann Ravids and Mrs. Mildred Miller.

The bride's mother wore a soft summer silk print with white accessories, while the groom's mother wore a two piece summer suit with black accessories, each wearing corsages of carnations. The bride's going away outfit was a navy suit with navy accessories. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ball are graduates of Boardman high school, the bride having spent her entire life in Boardman until her years ago when she with her mother moved to Pendleton. The groom has also spent much of his life in Boardman.

After a few days wedding trip, the young couple will move to Delake, Ore., where they with Mrs. Barlow will own and operate a motel.

Out of town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Marquardt, Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Akers and family, Ione; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lilly and family of Barnhart; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mead, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bareis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Jobe, Mrs. Miles Remillard, Edith Christensen, Mrs. Frances Krentz, Fannie Vaughn, and Mrs. Delos Long, all of Pendleton.

The potato harvest is getting well underway on the project. The Hugh and Chas. Dillons are now digging, with a very good yield. The Miller Bros. will start July 15th.

The Chuck Anderegg Melon stand is now open for the public, just west of Boardman. This is a good place to stop for your melons and ice cream, as the stand is all screened in with tables and modern equipment, where one avoids the usual bugs and pests. Clyde Tannehill had the misfortune to wreck his car Saturday while on way to the Mail Carriers convention. The accident occurred on the summit of the McKenzie Pass. The Tannehill car was sideswiped by a car with a California license. Mrs. Tannehill suffered a broken left arm below the elbow and other wise bruised and shaken up. She was treated in Eugene. Tannehill was only able to attend one hour of the convention. They were brought home Sunday by Mail Carrier Bill and Mrs. Penney of Echo. On arrival home the Tannehill's found friends Mr. and Mrs. Willard Budd Lettercarrier, of Glendale, Calif., awaiting their return. The Budd's continued their trip Monday.

Mrs. John Patterson left for her home in The Dalles after a week's visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nickerson.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Briggs were Mrs. Briggs son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell and children of Pullman, Wn., and her son W. D. Maxwell of Portland.

Week end guests of the Leroy Fussell family was Fussell's brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fussell of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Willett of The Dalles were guests Saturday and Sunday of Mrs. Willett's father Mr. E. T. Messenger. Saturday evening Messengers grand-son, Edwin Sharp of Vancouver arrived and was an overnight guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alton have finished the outside to their summer home on the west end with stone and brick veneer. This makes a very picturesque home on the project.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown was Mr. Browns brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brown, their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Greg, also Mrs. Lydia Porter all of Corvallis.

Week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Briggs was Mr. Briggs sister Mrs. Flora Schroeder of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderegg and daughter Barbara returned from a week spent at the coast and valley points.

Mrs. Nora Ransier left Monday for Helix, where she will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones of Kinzua, Camp 5 spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe were host and hostess Sunday afternoon to the 4H Pig, Beef, and Dairy Clubs in the form of a picnic. Present were club members, leaders, Leo Potts, and Lee Pearson, also County Agent Anderson from Heppner. Mr. Anderson instructed and assisted the members in demonstration work.

Mrs. Lowell Shattuck returned home this week after a few days spent with her mother Mrs. Della Faulkner of Goldendale, Wn. Bill Garrison of Oregon City, Oregon is spending some time at the home of his stepfather and mother Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderegg, and is assisting Mr. Anderegg on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Crawford took their departure Monday morning after a visit of two weeks with relatives and friends in Heppner. They returned to Hood River to spend the rest of the week with the Vawter Parker family and will go from there to Wenatchee to visit a brother of Mrs. Crawford's before starting back to Texas by way of Montana and the various parts of the Rocky mountains. The Texans accompanied Mrs. F. S. Parker, Mrs. Maude Jones and O. G. Crawford to Waitsburg Friday where the group visited a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Conover and then drove to Pasco to leave Mrs. Jones at her home after two months spent here visiting and receiving treatments.
