Advertisement From where I sit... by Joe Marsh Specs And I See Eye To Eye

Asked Specs Allen to go hunting last week. Known him all my life, so I wasn't surprised when he showed up with no gun. Specs doesn't like to kill anything. Couldn't ask for a better hunting companion, though. We tramp around the woods, and whenever the dogs flush a bird, I blaze away while Specs just watches. Told him once I was surprised he went along... feeling the way he does about shooting anything. "Well, Joe," he says, "you do what you think is right and I'll stick to what I think is right. I've no call to dislike you for not seeing everything the way I see it."

School House At Kinzua Renovated During Vacation

By ELSA M. LEATHERS The school house improvements have been completed. A new oil heater has been installed, new Kin-spected floor blocks have been laid for new flooring throughout the building. A large number of new adjustable desks were designed and made at the local factory for the 5th and 6th grade rooms. A larger enrollment this fall is expected. Mrs. Harlan Adams has been hired as janitor. The new principal is Joseph Hamilton, 7th and 8th; Mrs. Stanley Robinson, 1st and 2nd, and Mrs. Delvin McDaniel 3rd and 4th. The Hamiltons came here from Iowa. A stork shower for Mrs. Clarence Anderson was enjoyed by a large number of friends Monday night at Jeffmore hall. She received many beautiful presents. Refreshments were served. Many from Kinzua attended a church wedding at Fossil Sunday evening when Joline Clark became the bride of Allen Gwinn. The bride is the daughter of Zella Prindle of Fossil, and the groom is the son of Hazel Guinn of Fossil. They left for a honeymoon immediately following a reception at the Prindle home. Delbert Folston left the K.P.M. company this week to be the janitor at Fossil high school. He has worked here for many years. Last year he and his wife took over management of the Coffee Cup cafe in Fossil and live there. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gilland and children were week-end visitors from Walla Walla. They were the guests of Mrs. Gilland's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore. James Blake was in Kinzua from Camp 5 Saturday visiting with friends.
