Higby-White Vows Spoken Sunday at Church Ceremony

Miss Phyllis Nathelle Higby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Higby of Forest Grove, and Charles Scarborough White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon White of Ione were married in the Pacific University Congregational church at Forest Grove at 4 o'clock p. m. Sunday, August 21, with the Rev. Arthur M. Stook officiating. The church was decorated in orchid and white gladiolus. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin dress with a full train and with white chantilly lace, a full length veil with a heart shaped Mary Stewart bonnet trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a white Rainbow Girls' Bible with satin streamers and stephanotis and an orchid.

Miss Beverly Crawford was maid of honor and wore a turquoise satin gown. Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Smith, Miss Lodena French, Mrs. John Tompkins, all of Forest Grove, and Miss Arlene Bonn of Seattle. They wore orchid satin gowns and all wore picture net hats and mitts and carried heart shaped flower arrangements of orchid and white glads. The flower girl was Lona White, sister of the groom, and ring bearer was Jo Letha Rickey. They wore white organza dresses with turquoise sashes. Candle lighters were Janice Bushong of Bend and Anne Seymour. They wore white organza with orchid sashes.

Arthur Clough of Arlington was best man, and ushers were Kendall Nash, Dr. George Nash, both uncles of the bride, and Harold Higby, her brother. Richard Higby, uncle of the bride, sang Because and the Wedding Benediction and Prayer, accompanied by his wife at the organ.

A reception in the church parlor followed the wedding. The cake was served by Mrs. J. C. Rickey of Estacada and Mrs. Richard Higby, Portland. At the tea table were the bride couple's maternal grandmothers, Mrs. N. B. Nash and Mrs. O. S. Shiffer. Others assisting about the room were Miss Lucille Higby, Mrs. Dorothy Seymour, Mrs. Nora Lee Craven, Miss Beverly Gates, Miss Shirley Powell, Miss Virginia Bonn and Mrs. Thomas Perkins.

The bride's mother wore a royal blue crepe dress with pink accessories and rose corsage; the groom's mother was attired in an American beauty dress with aqua accessories and a delphinium corsage. The bride's going away suit was forest green with matching accessories and her orchid.

The young couple left on a trip to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. They will both attend Pacific university this fall. Mr. White belongs to Alpha Zeta fraternity and Intercollegiate Knights.
