North Morrow County Fair Declared Best Yet

By MISS FLOSSIE COATS
The North Morrow County fair ended the three-day session with a dance Saturday evening, music furnished by the Boardman Scatnotes. The fair was a huge success, surpassing the past two years. There were five organization booths. Greenfield grange taking first and the Boardman Garden club placing second. In the farm booths, Clayton Waldron placed first and I. Skoubo second. Highlight on the program Saturday afternoon was the dress-up bicycle parade for children. In this Charlotte Graham won first prize. Connie Baker second, and Harold Collesser third. The oldtime fiddlers contest was much appreciated, with first prize going to Bill Fortnham, Boardman, second to Lee Smith, Irrigon and third to W. W. Benson, Boardman. The 4-11 pig scramble held Saturday morning created much interest, as this is the first time this feature has been tried. Winners were Marilyn Barham, Richard Mulligan and Oscar Veelle. Winners of the FFA pig scramble in the afternoon were Allen Ely, Peter Cassidy, Michael Cassidy and Darrell Marlow. The Scatnotes orchestra played several numbers.

Labor Union, Mill Sponsor Picnic

By ELSA M. LEATHERS
