Snow And Cold Feature Weather at Kinzua This Week

By ELSA M. LEATHERS
 The Kinzua teaching staff left Thursday morning for The Dalles where they attended the two-day institute. They returned Saturday.
 Snow again this week covered the ground in Kinzua, and the night temperature was cold.
 Deer hunters took advantage of the breakdown Thursday morning to get into the woods and have a few extra hours of hunting. Work was resumed Friday morning.
 Saturday morning, between 10 and 11 o'clock, on Station KODL,

The Dalles, Hiram Cook, Samuel Mathison and Don Brock will play several numbers on the talent show. Some of these they have written and recorded.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Robison, first aid people at the hospital here, were called to Hubbard where her mother is seriously ill.
 Mesdames George Smith, Herb Wright, Frank Denton, Joe Miller and Lud Smith were hostesses for a bridal shower given at the hall Friday evening honoring Dorothy Hoover, who became the bride of Bill Edwards of Fossil, Sunday. The honoree received many beautiful gifts. Refreshments were served.
 Mrs. Ed Wham, Mrs. Harlan Schroeder of here and Mrs. Donald Bird and sister George Lee Hoover of Fossil spent several days in Portland shopping and visiting.
 Mrs. Leland Brisbois attended funeral services at Spray last week for Mrs. John Asher, known by many in Morrow county as Alice Shown. She was a teacher in the Hardman vicinity years ago. She passed away in California while taking care of a sick brother, and her body was returned to Spray, her home.
 Nelson Murphy took his small son Bobby to The Dalles where he was treated for what was believed to be appendicitis.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beard are the parents of a son born October 13 at The Dalles. He has been named Claude Dean and tipped the beam at six pounds.
 Mrs. Harve Boyer and her daughter Marjorie Terry returned home this week-end from Portland. Mrs. Terry has been receiving treatments at a hospital for the past three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and children of Beaverton brought them home. He got in some hunting and took a buck home.
 Mrs. Lamar Flack was visiting here Wednesday from Fossil. Mrs. Flack's husband and son are employed here.
 Pop Denton of Condon was attending to business here the first of the week.
 James Brannon and Ruben Medlock of Heppner were here Thursday visiting relatives and friends.
 Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hines and Ginger were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis at Lone Rock.
 Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jobe and children of Pendleton were visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jobe over the week-end. Tommy did some hunting.
 Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Orwick and baby spent the week-end at Heppner visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orwick.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leo Anderson brot their infant daughter that had to be in the incubator at The Dalles home this week. She is reported to be doing all right.

 Mr. and Mrs. J. Armstrong are spending several days in Portland on business concerning an auto accident on the 4th of July a year ago.
 Mrs. J. B. Dyer was in The Dalles Saturday where she received medical attention.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Strobel and children of Bend were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion (Slip) Wright over the week-end.
 Mr. and Mrs. Lester Halverson were in Hood River over the week-end.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Adams and family spent the week-end in Heppner, taking Mrs. Victor Lovgreen home after a visit here Friday night.
 Mrs. Charles Johnson and sister Mrs. Ernest Lear of Condon spent several days in Portland this week. While away Mrs. Nuby took care of Mrs. Johnson's children.
 Mr. and Mrs. Owen H. Leathers Sr. spent the week-end at the hunting camp on Wall creek set up by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Leathers and Marvin Glascock of Vancouver, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carmichael of Lexington.

very enjoyable time and have many interesting things to relate. They especially enjoyed the quartet of Indian boys from Tumulta. Their pastor, Sam Lee, is a Korean. The Harrises returned home Friday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Gran and son and Mrs. Mayday (Lewis) Howell of Gresham stopped on their way through town to greet their old time friends, the Barnards. Mrs. Howell spent her girlhood days near Hamilton and will be remembered by many of the older people. The party was on its way to Fox Valley to enjoy some deer hunting before the season closes.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Pickens and daughter Effe Gail, and mother, Mrs. Tillie Pickens of Springfield spent several days visiting and hunting in and near Monument. While here they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Durst. Mrs. Tillie Pickens is an aunt of Mrs. Durst and Mrs. Barnard.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cork and son of Clatskanie were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork. They enjoyed some hunting while here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Payne of Hermiston called on Mrs. George Stirritt and Mrs. Fred Shank on Monday. They were on their way to Long Creek.
 Mrs. Ella Durst, Mrs. Ivy Barnard, Mrs. Tillie Pickens, Mrs.

Wayne Pickens and daughter, Effe Gail, and Mrs. Katie Hinton drove to Pendleton Friday. They spent the day shopping.
 Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rhose and son Mitchell of DeLake spent the week-end with Mrs. Rhose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Forrest. Mr. Rhose spent Saturday hunting and was lucky enough to be able to take a nice buck home with him.
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard, Mrs. Ella Durst and their aunt, Mrs. Tillie Pickens, spent Thursday visiting the Theron Kings on Cottonwood and the Floy Hinton at Hamilton.
 George Stirritt is home for the winter. He has been employed by the forest service at John Day.

 Clayton Sweek drove to Canyon City Wednesday to have his finger prints taken. He will be employed by the Geological Survey. He was accompanied by Mrs. Millie Wilson who attended to matters of business in the county school superintendent's office.
 Mrs. Janice Cork and children, Mrs. Fay Cork, Mr. and Mrs. Chance Wilson and Mrs. Harriet Batty and mother were callers at the Lynn Forrest home Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Nick Bonifach of Fox spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rounds.

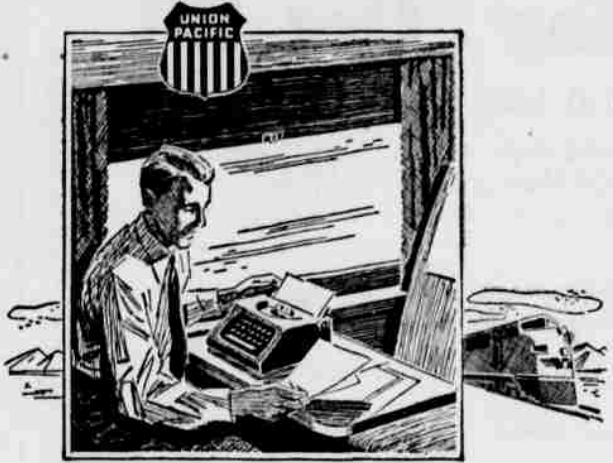

Jack Sweek and his mother, Mrs. Fayre Sweek, drove to Portland Wednesday. Mrs. Sweek was a delegate to the American Legion auxiliary meeting which was held there this week.
 Mrs. Laura Simas enjoyed having her two daughters and grand children of La Grande spend the past week with her. They left for their homes Sunday.
