

Lexington P.-T. A. Enjoys Program Tuesday Evening

By MRS. CECIL JONES

Members and friends gathered at the school house Tuesday evening and enjoyed a program by the Lexington Parent-Teacher association. Charlene Jones played two piano solos; Phyllis Nolan sang Beautiful Dreams, accompanied by her sister Beverly; Ida Buchanan played two accordion solos, and Joan Breeding a piano solo. Dr. C. C. Dunham of Heppner, chairman of the Community Chest campaign in Morrow county, spoke on the aims and purposes of the chest, stressing the assistance provided for local groups such as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the Campfire Girls. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served later in the evening. Gerald Baker, president, was in charge of the meeting, which was well attended.

A business meeting was held prior to the program at which time Supt. Joe Feathers accepted the appointment as finance chairman and representatives to the county P-TA meeting at Boardman Wednesday were named. These included Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Armin Wihlon, Mrs. Roger Anderson, Mrs. Truman Mesinger, Mrs. Adolf Majeske and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

The HEC of the Lexington grange met at the C. C. Jones home with about 12 members present. The afternoon was spent making plans for the turkey dinner-bazaar to be held November 12 at the grange hall. Refreshments of jello, coffee and cookies were served later in the day.

Friends in Lexington were sorry to hear of the defeat suffered by Dallas Ward's Colorado university football team at Eugene Saturday. Dallas was accompanied on his trip by Buster Gentry. Both boys lived their childhood in Lexington and graduated from the local school. While in Eugene they met Buster's sister, Mrs. Maxine Jeub of Coquille and enjoyed a real get-together. They all attended the ball game at Pullman. One sister, May, of San Francisco, was unable to attend the reunion.

Keith Gentry of Pendleton was a guest at the Barnett home Tuesday.

Mrs. George Irvin was hostess at her home Saturday afternoon, honoring Charlene Jones's birthday with a party for 21 youngsters. Games were played, with several songs being sung, after which Charlene opened her gifts. Refreshments of ice cream, cake, punch, and small nut cups with miniature Hershey bars and Tootsy rolls were served from trays made up for each youngster with matching napkins, plates and cups. Out of town guests were Bonita Crum and mother, Mrs. Ralph Crum of Ione. Other mothers attending were Mrs. Randall Martin, Mrs. Hermann Wallace and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer.

The Lexington school house is having an added attraction installed in the form of a fire escape. This is made on the front of building directly over the door.
