Lexington Women Organize Garden Club This Week

By DELPHA JONES

A group of Lexington women met at the home of Mrs. Mervin Leonard Tuesday for the purpose of forming a garden club. Mrs. Harry J. Andrews of Hermiston was the speaker of the meeting. She was accompanied by Mrs. Alexander of Hermiston. The group went on record as favoring joining the state and national federations of garden clubs. Election of officers was held, with Mrs. Leonard being chosen as president; Mrs. Frank Munkers, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Peck, secretary, and Mrs. Lonnie Henderson treasurer. Mrs. Randy Lott was named by-laws chairman, and Mrs. C. C. Jones program chairman. A lunch was served at noon consisting of chicken pie, molded salad, cake and coffee. The ladies voted that the club will be known as the Lexington Garden club. The next meeting will be held Dec. 13 at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Jones. Questions to be discussed will be if one should rake their lawn and the storing of bulbs through winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gosnell and daughter Donna of Coquille were week-end visitors at the K. K. Marshall home.

The Amacilla club met at the home of Mrs. William Van Winkle Tuesday with two tables of pinochle in play. Refreshments of salad and coffee, with relishes, were served. Prizes were won by
