FRUIT WITH CUSTARD SAUCE

Creamy custard sauce can do vonders to dress up the simplest of fruit desserts. With such fruits as apples and pears in bountiful supply this fall, the economical emaker includes them often in her salad and dessert menus For a delicious dessert variation try serving fruits with custard sauce. Such as, baked apples with custard sauce, baked pears, fresh fruit cup, canned peaches, prune whip, and many others. SEE WHY.

Every one is hand set and basted to give you a casual, easy fit that lets you m-o-v-e! The armholes are taped to hold their comfortable shape. The hand worked sleeves fall into a clean, simple roll that denotes excellent quality.

* SEE LAPELS

The careful hand tailoring that goes into every Town Clad suit reaches a high in the broad, draping lapels. They're hand taped along the roll and interlined to hold those trim lines!

* SEE HYMO FRONT

This is the resilient pre-shrunk hair canvas body of the suit jacket. It forms a springy frame that holds the clean cut lines of your Town Clad as long as the suit lasts. Rows and rows of stitching. and reinforcing pre-shrunk felt, prevent bulges or puckers.

* SEE FABRIC

We use only carefully matched 13-131/2 ounce all wool worsted fabrics! That's quality usually found in more expensive suits. Nobody else insists on such uniformly high quality in fabrics and workmanship. That's why every Town Clad is a terrific buy - always!
