BOARDMAN ITEMS

Home Extension local unit met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Tannehill Monday afternoon. Topic was new home furnishing materials. Miss Margaret Gillis of Heppner gave a talk on the dreaded cancer. Miss Mabel Wilson, home extension agent also talked and presented films on the disease. The next meeting will be January 16 at the home of Mrs. Dewey West.

WINTER STORAGE TIME HAS ARRIVED

Snow has come. Summer clothes will be packed away. Care in packing will pay dividends next year when warm weather returns. Stains and soil, easy to remove now, may be "set" if left to set on clothing. Thus, it pays to put clothes away clean.

Store clothes where they are protected from dust, rust, moisture, mice, insect pests—and also from unnecessary wrinkling or crushing. Remove any pine or metal ornaments which may leave marks. For clothes that hang over the winter, sturdy wooden or plastic hangers are recommended rather than metal hangers which may leave rust marks.

Clothes worth keeping are worth keeping in good condition.

ONE DOWN ON GMC

Halloween pranks invaded the governor's office this year and Governor Douglas McKay, who is one of the state's leading Chevrolet dealers, is hunting a bushy set of whiskers to hook over his ears as a disguise while driving a Ford, now the executive's official car. The governor's embarrassing situation involves the Halloween perfidy of a trusted friend and political cohort, William L. Phillips, Sr., manager of Salem's Ford agency, who was McKay's campaign finance manager.

Recently the state department called for bids for a new car for the executive department. The deal included the trade in of a worn out Chevrolet. Phillips submitted the low bid, $498, paid the difference for his fun, which forced the governor to accept a Ford. The real name of the almost legendary Johnny Appleseed, who tramped through the frontier country of Ohio and Indiana in the early 19th century, starting apple orchards wherever he went, was John Chapman.

IRRIGON SCHOOL NEWS

The junior class received their rings Monday, November 7. They are very pretty.

The freshmen have a new member in their class. He is Donald Leighton, from Redmond. The grade school basketball boys have new blue and white suits.

Several students accompanied the annual advertising man to Pendleton to collect advertisements for the 1950 edition.

The senior class sponsored a turkey shoot November 11 and 12. Fred Adams and Ernest Filley were among the winners.

The Irrigon school had its annual carnival Friday evening. A good Thanksgiving program was prepared by the teachers and it was well received by a large crowd. The proceeds were over $400, made from the concessions.

The basketball teams are beginning practice. Practice for the Christmas programs has started.

School was dismissed Wednesday evening for Thanksgiving and will resume Monday, the 28th.
