

Club News

Agricultural clubs organized during the past three weeks are fast becoming active with several of them holding meetings, electing officers and planning their programs for the year.

Meeting at the George Currin ranch on Butter creek Sunday, three clubs planned their programs for the year as well as holding election of officers. A sheep club with Jerry Brosnan as local leader, president, Joanne Brosnan; vice president, Eddie Brosnan; secretary, Reita Graves, was organized. Other members are Ronald Currin and Jack Monagle.

A swine club led by George Currin elected Ronald Currin as president; Dean Graves as vice president, Eddie Brosnan as secretary. Other members of the club are John Brosnan and Thomas Currin. Also completing organization was a beef club led by John Graves, elected as president; Allan Hughes; vice president, Betty Graves.

The tractor maintenance club organized on November 6, led by Dick Wightman, has held two meetings this month. Officers for the year are John Mollahan, president; Jimmy Wightman, vice president, and Ronald Currin, secretary. Also enrolled in this project are John Brosnan, Allen Hughes, Dean Graves, Larry Mollahan, Roger Palmer, and Jack Monagle. This club meets every Monday noon at the Heppner school.

A livestock club led by Vernon Munkers has for officers, Jimmy Wightman, president; Peggy Wightman, vice president, and Jean Marie Graham, secretary. Other members enrolled in the club are Carol Anderson, George Hemann, Marilyn Munkers, Skip Ruhl, Dick Ruhl, Janet Wightman, Marvin Wightman, Joanne Wilson, Jimmy Green and Terry Thompson.

Elmer Palmer is the leader, assisted by Ralph Beamer, for a beef and pig club for members of South Heppner. Roger almer is president; Neil Beamer, vice president, and Sally almer secretary. Other members are Janice Beamer, Jimmy Hayes and Joe Privett.

Earl McKinney is the new leader of the Ione Beef and Sheep club with 11 members enrolled, resident is Richard Ekstrom; vice president, Duane Baker, and secretary, Malcolm McKinney. Members are Ingrid Hermann, Mardene Baker, Leland McKinney, Ronald Baker, Herbert Ekstrom, Loy Keene, Janet Howton and Nancy Califf.

Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, Boardman, is the new leader for a rabbit and poultry club organized November 15. President is Gracia Veele; vice president, Delores Carlson; secretary, Betty Carlson. Other members are Carol Hamilton, Jimmy Thorpe, Sharon Fussell, Billy Thorpe, Sharon Fussell and Nancy Califf.

The Beautiflier Hobby club, with Mrs. C. E. Stalcup, Boardman, as leader will concentrate on art and stenciling projects this year. Elected as president of this club is Joyce Cram; vice president, Betty Carlson, with Wilma Hug as secretary. Members are Vinetta Cram, Betty Carlson, Gracia Veele, Elnora Earwood, Viola Jordan and Marily Barham.

Several feeder calves were added to the list of fat calf projects for 1950, the past week. Those securing calves were Ingrid Hermann, two Herefords, and Herbert Ekstrom, one Hereford from the Delbert Emert herd, Ione; Betty Graves, one Shorthorn; Skip Ruhl, one Shorthorn and Reta Graves, one Shorthorn, from the Sherman & Ferguson herd, Heppner. Dick Ruhl picked a Hereford steer from the Ruhl herd.

This brings to a total 30 calves that are now on feed for spring and fall shows.

Other new projects added the past week were five Hampshire ewes from the Clayton Fox herd at Imbler. These were purchased by Jnanne and Eddie Brosnan and Ronald Currin who are increasing their breeding herd, while Jim Green purchased one as the beginning of a Hampshire flock.

Popular Pumpkin Pies

Pumpkin pie is one of America's traditional favorites—and it seems to taste more delicious every year! The fragrant, spicy smell of pumpkin pie baking in the oven is one of the nicest things about November. Let the rain beat down and the cold winds blow—what care we when there's a pumpkin pie baking for dinner? With Thanksgiving just around the corner, it might be a good idea to make a practice pie just in case.

Pumpkin pie filling is really a custard—something which many homemakers don't realize. It should be treated like a custard, too—not only in baking, but in eating. If you have youngsters who don't really qualify for pie yet, make a little extra pumpkin filling, bake it in custard cups and serve it topped with whipped cream. Your small fry will love it and it is good for them too! Pumpkin custard is made with good rich milk, eggs and wholesome pumpkin—and you can go light or heavy on the spices as you wish.

Some folks like a little variations in their pumpkin pie. Orange is one of the most delicious variations that we know of—as you will see if you try this recipe for Orange Pumpkin Tarts. They are grand for a Thanksgiving dinner too!

ORANGE PUMPKIN TARTS

(Serves 12)

- 2 1/4 cups cooked pumpkin
- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 3/4 tsp. salt
- 1 1/4 tsp. cinnamon

- 1 1/2 cups rich milk
 - 1/4 tsp. mace
 - 3 beaten eggs
 - 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla
 - 3/4 cup orange juice
 - 1 1/2 tsp. grated orange rind
- Line small tart pans with rich pastry building up the edges about 1/2 inch. Chill Mix the ingredients in the order listed above until smooth. Turn into pastry shells. Bake at 425 F. for 25 min. or until custard is firm. Serve with whipped cream.

Our version of the old fashioned pumpkin pie. Try serving it with ice cream for something deliciously different.

PUMPKIN PIE

- 1 1/4 cups pumpkin
 - 3 eggs
 - 3/4 cup brown sugar
 - 1 1/2 cups milk
 - 1/2 cup cream
 - 1 tsp. cinnamon
 - 1/2 tsp. ginger
 - 1/4 tsp. nutmeg
 - 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 2 Tbsp. melted butter
- Plain pastry for a one crust pie

Heat pumpkin over high heat, stirring constantly until it seems dry. Beat eggs enough to mix well add to pumpkin. Add other ingredients in the order listed and for 45 to 50 minutes, or until a clean knife insert in the center comes out clean. Makes one 9-inch pie.

The common apple appears in the mythology, traditions, history, and archeology of the most ancient nations. It is mentioned in the Bible, and in the earliest annals of China, Egypt, and Babylon.
