Comings, Goings Of Monument Folk Reported by Scribe

By MILLIE WILSON
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johns and their daughters, Kay and Dea Ann and Laura Lee Shank drove to Prairie City Thursday to eat Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. Johns' parents. They returned to Monument to attend the dance in the evening.

Charles Roach drove to Long Creek to the John Carter ranch Wednesday to get a registered Hereford heifer for Bucky Flower. The heifer was one of a shipment that Bill Farrell had sent in. Bucky bought this heifer with the money he has received from his various 4-H projects. He is a lucky boy to be able to secure such an animal and should capture more prize money next year.

Marion Cork of Hardman is spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flower. He has been cooking at the Lesley boys' hunting lodge on Sunflower flat during the hunting season.

Dick Williams is widening the road to the L. S. ranch this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Engle of Cottonwood were in town Saturday afternoon. They brought a cow down to ship to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Mead Gilman Jr. and daughter are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mead Gilman Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Cummings.

Earl Johns is helping George Stritt build a new garage this week.

Clarence Holmes, Rho Bleakman, Henry Cupper, Lyle Van Dusen and Millie Wilson represented the Monument school districts at the county-wide meeting held at the court house in Canyon City last Tuesday. Mr. Wilcox from the state department of education was there to help the rural school board answer the questions of the various school boards.

Mrs. Clyde Johns and her mother, Mrs. Jack Vaughn of Fox Valley were calling on Mrs. George Stritt and Mrs. Fred Shank last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Leathers and daughter Deane, and son Buzz left Saturday for California to visit their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ab Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Musgrave took their son Johnnie to Pendleton Monday for a medical check-up. From there they drove to The Dalles where Mr. Musgrave consulted his doctor.

Open U. P. Bore With Bang

Kee-rash! With a reverberating blast from its horn and the snapping of taut canvas a 6,000-horsepower Diesel locomotive plunges through the big Union Pacific shield covering the west portal of the railroad's new Altamont tunnel in western Wyoming. Recently dedicated with elaborate ceremony, the 6,706-foot bore parallels the 48-year-old Aspen tunnel and eliminates the only stretch of single track along Union Pacific's 1,026 mile double main line between Omaha and Salt Lake City.

The Thanksgiving dance sponsored by the MMM club was well attended and every one reports a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin had Mr. and Mrs. Chance Wilson as their dinner guests on Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Weise of Freewater spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Weise's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fleming.

Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bleakman and family and Mrs. Ida Bleakman drove to Cecil Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hynd.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek and daughter Carol were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowman for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Allstott of Hermiston spent the holidays with Mrs. Allstott's mother, Mrs. Daisy Simas.

Mrs. Desie Sweek has been confined to her bed for the last few days. Her daughter, Mrs. George Capon, spent Saturday with her.

William D. Withinton, after spending three and one-half months in Monument, left Tuesday for Sacramento. He was with the geodetic survey.

A number of Monument young people drove to Kimberley Monday night to charivari Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crouch who were recently married in Pendleton. The new-llyeds will make their home in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Huston Lesley of Hardman were business visitors in Monument Wednesday. Mrs. Lesley is the postmistress at Hardman.

Lloyd Harshman drove to Hepner Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mantis left Wednesday for Klamath Falls where they spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sweek.

Orin Stubblefield of Yakima and his daughter Vera of Portland spent the Thanksgiving holidays with the Mard and Otis Stubblefield families. Miss Stubblefield left for Portland via Pendleton Sunday morning. Orin will stay for a few days visit.

Make your cream sauce medium thick—smooth and rich with butter and milk—season it well, and don't forget a spoonful of chopped parsley, green pepper or pimiento for added color and flavor. Add the turkey meat and heat well. Now serve it over hot corn bread, or crisp waffles—it makes mighty good eating!

Here is a variation of the Turkey Shortcake made with corn meal which makes good eating too.

TURKEY CORN BREAD
(Serves 6)

- 2 Tbsp. turkey fat or butter
- 1 to 2 cups diced cooked turkey
- 1 cup corn meal
- 1 cup sifted flour
- 1/2 cup sugar (optional)
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 3 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. celery seed
- 1 egg
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 cup shortening

Melt the two tablespoons of turkey fat or butter in an 8-inch baking pan. Spread the turkey evenly over the bottom of this pan. Sift together dry ingredients into medium sized bowl. Add egg, milk and shortening. Beat until smooth, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat. Pour batter over turkey, spreading evenly. Bake in a hot oven 425 F., for 20 to 30 minutes. Invert on platter. Serve immediately with giblet gravy and cranberry sauce.

Don't waste the turkey carcass it will serve as the basis for delicious turkey chowder.

TURKEY CHOWDER
(Serves 6)

- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 2 Tbsp. butter
- 4 cups boiling water
- 1/2 cup rice
- 1 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 tsp. peppers
- Turkey carcass, cut in pieces
- 3 cups milk

Cook onion in butter until golden. Add boiling water, rice, seasonings and turkey carcass. Cover. Heat to boiling. Simmer 30 minutes, or until rice is tender. Remove bones. Scrape off meat and add to soup. Add milk heat. Serve hot garnished with chopped parsley.

One of the best things about the holiday turkey is the leftovers. Favorites in many families are turkey shortcake, the meat creamed, well seasoned and sandwiched in generous amounts between split squares of toasted yellow corn bread. And if there's any left—thin pancakes rolled round chopped creamed turkey, with cranberry jelly—um-m-m-m. It tastes so good your family will cheer.

Cold turkey itself is fine fare too, but in case there isn't enough left for a presentable cold dish, we have several suggestions that will make a little go a long way. Turkey combines well with cream
