KPM Supts. Attend Industrial Safety Meet in Portland

M. R. Wright, superintendent of the mill and green chain, and Maurice Brown, superintendent of the planer and factory, were representatives for the KPM Co. at the industrial safety conference in Portland Wednesday-Thursday of last week. Both Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Brown accompanied their husbands. Mrs. H. Newby, Mrs. Brown's mother, also went and visited her daughter, Mrs. Ed Bush in Portland.

The American Legion is sponsoring a shoot on Sunday, Dec. 11. Lunch will be served by the auxiliary ladies.

Mrs. Joe Wooln began work at the Kinzua Mercantile, in the dry goods department, until the holiday rush is over.

The local show management made a change in their show cards. Beginning Saturday they will run a matinee at 3:30 p. m. and the same show again at the regular hour, 7:30. On Sunday a new show, the same procedure as on Saturday. Hereafter there will be no show during the week.

John Hawk who was admitted to the TB hospital at The Dalles on Tuesday of last week, was discharged and returned home Saturday. He has been ill the past several months and has been at the veterans hospital in Portland, but was released.

James Hanna, Marvin Jones

and Sam Parker began work here Monday from Camp 5 where the logging operations are slowing down due to weather conditions. Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Wall motored to Umatilla for the weekend to visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Maroney.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robison and daughter Doris went to Portland Thursday evening. Mrs. Robison attended a teacher conference. Her teachers, one from Mitchell and one from Condon, accompanied them. They returned Saturday. Carl Manske taught in Mrs. Robison's place on Friday.

The state forester and family stationed here, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wren and boys, have returned from a vacation that took them to Fresno, Calif. to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wren, and other relatives in California. While in southern Oregon they visited Crater Lake and in the Rogue River valley and at Grants Pass they visited Mr. and Mrs. Schumaker, Mrs. Wren's sister.

Mrs. John Hawk and two sons, and Mrs. Floyd Nelson and two daughters left Arlington Wednesday night by bus for Tennessee where they were called by the death of their father. Floyd Nelson took them to Arlington.

Edwin Derrick of Fossil began work here again this week. He left here about a year ago to study at a bible school in Portland. Since his return to Wheeler county he has been assisting with Sunday school work and the church services at the community hall here.

The Leo Andersons and family and Mrs. Annie Anderson moved to Ellensburg, Wash. during the week. Anderson had been previously employed on the section of highway between Camp 5 and Kinzua.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schott left Friday for Portland where he consulted his doctor about pine poisoning on his hands. They returned home Sunday.

Sheridan Ledford returned to Kinzua from North Carolina where he visited his parents the past month.

Samuel Matteson took his wife and small daughter to The Dalles Saturday where they left by United Air Lines for San Diego. She will visit briefly at the home of her parents before entering a hospital for a major operation.

Harve Boyer returned home Saturday after spending a week in Baker where his mother is seriously ill in the hospital.
