Winter Weather Hits Kinzua With Force Past Weekend

By ELSA M. LEATHERS

Winter weather hit Kinzua this week, with light snow on Friday evening. Around four below zero Saturday evening. More snow Sunday night and Monday morning, and chnooking Monday afternoon. However, the bad roads were responsible for many cars in ditches, with minor damages. Larry Cook Sr. was not so fortunate as some. His car was badly wrecked Saturday night near Dyer park, between Fossil and Condon. He was able to return to Camp 5 Sunday afternoon. John Howk's and Zolan Tripp's vehicles were reported wrecked on the way to The Dalles Saturday.

Rev. Bert T. Albritton from the Assembly of God church in Fossil conducted services here Wednesday night in Jeffmore hall, with a large crowd in attendance. The song service and special numbers by local people were also enjoyed.

Phil Doerr was painfully burned Monday evening at the machine shops by hot water. He received first aid at the hospital.

Clarence Briggs of Bend, business agent for the Central Oregon district, attended the union AFL meeting Thursday evening. He showed a movie after the meeting.

The high school students were returned to their homes Monday before noon, after it was learned the water facilities at the court house, where they attend school in Fossil, were frozen up.

Bill Mattier of La Grande was visiting in Kinzua Monday. He left Kinzua's employ to be a state game warden and is located at La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coleman went to Portland the last of the week. He will go to Palm Springs, Calif. and San Diego to spend the winter. Mrs. Coleman will stay here until in January when she will join her husband. Carl Jr. attended school here.

Malcolm Keys, Wheeler county sheriff, was attending to official business here Friday afternoon.

Mrs. R. M. Wright, chairman of the Christmas Seal sale, mailed the stamps out this week. All are urged to return money for the stamps at once.

A large number of Kinzua people went to Condon on the 6th to watch the basketball games between Condon, Fossil, Arlington and Heppner.

Ralph Moore and daughter Kay were in town from Camp 5 Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Doerr and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Halverson spent the week-end at Bend where they were shopping.

A. B. Wham moved his family here over the week-end from Dayville. They are occupying the house vacated by the Bill Greens.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud England left Monday to spend several days in Portland where they plan to shop and attend to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hines and Ginger were in Condon Saturday where both Mrs. Hines and Ginger visited the dentist. They also did some shopping.

Forest Graham and children, Roger and Barbara, returned Sunday from The Dalles after spending the week-end with Mrs. Graham who had undergone a major operation at The Dalles hospital on Thursday. At the time of this writing she was getting along fine.

Jimmie Adkins and Mark Jellick went Friday to The Dalles where they visited Jimmie's aunt, Sadie Austin. They returned Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Green and daughter left Saturday for their home in Mack's Creek, Mo. They have a small farm and will not return to Kinzua. They lived here four years. Bill will be known as the pitcher for the baseball team here the past three seasons.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed O'Stander and children returned from Portland Friday where they spent several days shopping and where Mrs. O'Stander had dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Kelly are the parents of a son born December 2 at a Walla Walla hospital. He was named Clinton Elmo and tipped the scales at 8 pounds 1 ounce. Mrs. Kelly has spent the last several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Robbs, and with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kelly Jr. of Milton. They are also the paternal and maternal grandparents. Mr. Kelly brought his wife and son home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Robinson and Doris left Thursday evening for Medford where his mother, Mrs. Gretchen Anfinson, is seriously ill. She is at the home of her daughter Eva. Mrs. Anfinson is well known in Morrow county, as she lived there many years, in Burton Valley, and was Mrs. Miles Mulligan.

Cecil Martin who was injured at the mill several weeks ago, when his foot was badly cut, returned to his home this week end. He has to use crutches yet.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Wright spent several days in Pendleton this week where Mr. Wright was receiving medical attention. They motored on to La Grande to attend a business meeting for K. P. M. Co. returning home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Baker left Friday for the south to spend their vacation. They plan to put in most of their time in Mexico.
