

Lexington P. T. A. Holds Meeting and Christmas Party

The Lexington P. T. A. held its monthly meeting and Christmas party last Wednesday night in the school auditorium. A nice program consisting of a dance and song by the Blue Birds, leader Mrs. Roger Anderson; a holiday of Christmas songs, Betty Messen; piano solo, O Holy Night, by Beanna Steagall, and a piano trio, Duanna Steagall, Joan Breeding and Birdie Cantrell. After this Mr. Feathers, coach, presented his team with football letter certificates. Receiving them were Donny McMillan, manager; Max Breeding and Earl Miller, freshmen; Ronald Earl, Gene Sawyer, sophomores; Floyd Breeding, Ray Papineau, John Edwards, juniors, and Marvin Way and Charlie Padberg, seniors. Later on in the program the manager of the girls volleyball team, Garnet Buchanan, gave a talk on the team and asked assistance in obtaining suits for the girls. The P. T. A. went on record for buying two. After a business meeting, refreshments were served in the lunch room. The primary grade received the room count.

The L. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges held their regular meeting and joint party Thursday night at the lodge hall. Each member was given a different color of crepe paper and told to tear out and put on a hat in the five minutes allotted. Prizes were won by Mrs. Marie Martin and Cecil Jones. Gifts were exchanged by passing the gifts around a circle to music played by Mrs. Truman Messenger. Later lovely refreshments were served in the kitchen. Red and green jello, Christmas cookies and coffee, and chicken sandwiches were served by the refreshment committee, Thelma Anderson, Freda Majeske, and Mildred Davidson.

The Christmas program at the church was well attended Sunday night. The beginners and primary classes under the leadership of Mrs. Truman Messenger, Mrs. Cantrell and Mrs. Don Campbell had several selections and all sang "Christmas Day Is Here," "Away in a Manger," and "Gospel Bells." Junior class had a candle-light ceremony recitation, and piano trio, Birdie Cantrell, Joan Breeding and Marilyn Munkers. The intermediate class gave a tableau portraying Christ's birth, reading was by Mrs. Gerald Baker with the class singing appropriate songs in chorus. The slides were made by Mrs. Rand. Two numbers, "Holy Night" and "In a Lowly Manger" were sung by the church choir. A special offering of $40 was taken in and sent to the Northwest Christian home for the aged at Beaverton. Opening, offering and closing prayers were by Mr. Cantrell.
