Monument Council Discusses Program With Townspeople

Monday night, January 2, the council held an important meeting in relation to the REA situation. Many citizens turned out to participate in the discussion.

Delmar Settle was sick last Tuesday. Clayton Sweek took him to John Day in the late afternoon to consult a doctor. It was found he had appendicitis and an immediate operation was necessary. Wednesday morning it was reported that he was doing as well as could be expected. His mother, Lulu Settle and LaVerda Cox went to Prairie City Wednesday to visit him.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johns, Fred Shank and Tom Shank drove to Pendleton Thursday to visit their brother, Case Shank, who is in the hospital there with a crushed leg. He was hit by a truck on the highway between Pendleton and Ukiah. It is hoped he can be moved to his home in Ukiah this week.

Mrs. Ona Mae Leathers and Mrs. Walt Burton were in John Day and Prairie City the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Farnes and their daughter, Mrs. Walter Wright and children drove to Rhea Creek on Thursday. Mrs. Wright was returning home after spending several days with her parents.

Mrs. Boyd Hinton entertained at dinner on Saturday in honor of her daughter Sharon's eighth birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Throope of Dayville, Miss Joyce Ann Mundy, and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cork of Portland. The occasion also happened to be Mr. and Mrs. Cork's wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Stubblefield took a load of hogs to the sales ring at Hermiston Friday. Their son Stevie stayed with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oatis Stubblefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Warren have sold their home in Monument to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Naff of Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. Rho Bleakman attended the dance in Long Creek Saturday night.

Word was received by Mrs. Edna Moore on Wednesday that her husband, Emory Moore, was still in Seattle at that time. On account of the weather conditions he had been unable to get a plane to Alaska.

Mrs. Reta Cupper is having her kitchen remodeled this week. The carpenters are Henry Cupper and Chet Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Brown were business visitors in Heppner on Thursday and Friday. While there they visited Mrs. Brown's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman.

Inspector Youman of John Day and Warden Chet Brown of Monument were in the Dale area this week inspecting slash. They encountered some bad roads and snow drifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barnard are still at the Theron King ranch helping out with the work while Mrs. King has to be in John Day with her small son, Earl Frank, who is still under the doctor's care.

Ruben Patzer is building a flue in the gymnasium this week. As soon as this is completed a new stove will be installed in the boys' dressing room.

Word was received in Monument Friday of the death of Dennis King of Fox Valley. Mr. King was well known in this community and his many friends are sorry to hear of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Shank, Mrs. Edna Moore and daughter Anita were John Day visitors the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Griggs and children drove to Walla Walla to spend New Year's eve with Mrs. Griggs' mother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Cork of Portland arrived here early Saturday morning. They spent New Year's day with relatives and friends. From here they go to Pendleton to visit Mrs. Cork's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith.

Hi-Ways To Health
By ADA R. MAYNE
START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT
The New Year often brings cold weather in its wake—and cold weather calls for hot, nourishing meals. Good food is the fuel with which we keep our bodies warm and in good working condition, protected from fatigue and disease. Nourishing, nutritious foods build resistance against colds and infections which are so prevalent during the winter months. These protective foods include milk, green vegetables, fruits, eggs, lean meat, cheese and whole-grain cereals. Make sure your family has plenty of these foods each day.

Meals including these health-protecting foods need not be expensive, and they certainly can be delicious! Inexpensive cuts of meat and left-over roast may be prepared in many appetizing ways, making nutritious, economical main dishes. The addition of a little sour cream to meats such as beef or veal gives the meat a delicious flavor as well as adding tenderizing properties. Savory combinations of leftover meat and vegetables make appetizing main dishes for cold, blustery days. A filling, heart-warming favorite—so dear to men's hearts—is good, old fashioned stew. Creamy lamb stew is just such a dish—combining lamb shoulder, vegetables and creamy gravy in a savory, steaming main dish.

CREAMY LAMB STEW
2 lb. shoulder of lamb; 4 Tbsp. flour, 1 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/4 tsp. pepper, 2 Tbsp. butter, 3 onions, sliced; 3 cups water, 3 large potatoes, quartered; 3 large carrots, quartered; 2 cups milk, scalded; 1 Tbsp. minced parsley.
Select lean meat, trim, cut into serving pieces, then roll in 2 Tbsp of the flour blended with salt and pepper. Brown in butter lifting out as soon as browned. Cook onions in same fat for five minutes—they should soften but not brown. Replace lamb, and water, cover and simmer very gently until tender, about 2 hours. Add potatoes and carrots at end of first hour. Lift out meat and vegetables and keep hot. Add milk and thicken gravy with remaining flour blended smoothly with 3 Tbsp. of the milk (cold). Bring to the boiling point, stirring constantly, then cook five minutes. Add parsley and additional seasoning if needed and pour over and around stew.
Sour cream and a little grated cheese make a flavorful meat dish from an inexpensive beef cut. Serve with hot baked potatoes.

BEEF CUBES IN SOUR CREAM
(Serves six)
2 lb. meat from beef shank, cut in 1-inch cubes; 2 medium onions sliced; salt and pepper; 1/2 cup sour cream; 1/2 cup water; 2 Tbsp. grated American cheese.
Dip meat in flour. Brown in hot fat. Add sliced onions. Combine remaining ingredients; pour over meat. Cover. Cook slowly top of range or in oven (325 to 350° F.) until tender, about two hours.
