GAS REVENUE BOOSTED BY ADDITIONAL TAX OF ONE CENT PER GALLON

The one cent per gallon added to Oregon's gasoline levy July 1 boosted 1949 gas tax revenue approximately 12 per cent, Secretary of State Earl T. Newberry reported today.

Newberry said the increase was almost entirely due to the added tax, since total sales for the year were up less than two per cent. After increasing approximately 10 per cent each year since 1945, Oregon's travel mileage is apparently leveling off, he indicated.

The motor fuel tax division listed gross 1949 taxes at $26,293,380.15, with refunds to non-highway users of $3,041,448.09 and administrative expenses of $106,325.36. The highway fund netted $23,145,606.70.

Since the first gasoline tax was levied February 25, 1919, a total of $285,056,074.61 has been collected. Refunds have aggregated $34,196,068.64 and administrative expenses $86,123.40, leaving a balance transferred or awaiting transfer to the highway fund of $249,993,882.57.
