Moving Delayed

Due to a death in the family of Mr. Eddie Paul, who has been retained to superintend the moving of our equipment, we find it necessary to postpone moving until

Thursday
March 2
(One Week)

Regular service will be maintained until that date. The office in our present location will be kept open until March 4 to receive and deliver work done up to and including March 1.

Always Leave Them Laughing

Just ROAR at the show-world's No. 1 Funny-Man, Milton Berle, and the girl he gets funny with, Virginia Mayo! Also, Ruth Roman, Bert Lahr, Alan Hale, Grace Hayes, Jerome Cowan. You'll have to stop laughing long enough to listen to the 8 song hits!

WHITE HEAT

Tues.-Wed.-Thurs. February 28-March 1-2
James Cagney, Virginia Mayo, Edmond O'Brien, Margaret Wyckley - 8

A picture of the Treasury Department and gangsters that moves with the speed of a bullet. . . not since the days of "Scarface" has anything of such excellence in the crime category hit the screen. Cagney is outstanding in the type of role that first brought him screen fame. It's rugged, realistic and adult.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case and other relatives.

Mrs. Allen Case returned the last of the week from a business trip to Portland.

John Krebs of Cecil was looking after business matters in Heppner Tuesday. Lambing is in full swing in the Cecil district.

L. E. Dick paid a visit to his sons, Edwin and Kemp and their families over the week-end.

Mrs. Lennie Loudon and Mrs. R. A. Thompson motored to Pendleton Wednesday to spend the day looking after business affairs.

Frank Baker returned Sunday from Pendleton where he has been a patient at St. Anthony's hospital following an operation earlier in the week. He was brought home by Mrs. Frances Cheek and Dallas Moon. Mrs. Cheek will be remembered as the former Frances White and now has a position as supervisor in the Pendleton telephone office. They were dinner guests of Josephine Mahoney before returning to Pendleton.

Week-end houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Hart were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rose and son Lorne and Joe Carroll of Baker.

A record crowd attended the Pancake luncheon at the Episcopal parish house Tuesday. This is an annual event of Shrove Tuesday and is sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary.

Among those from Pendleton here Saturday for the Elks annual were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kenney, and Dr. and Mrs. James R. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark of Hermiston were in Heppner Saturday.

Week-end houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anderson were Mr. and Mrs. Del Smith of Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Devin of Condon were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Parker.

WORD OF APPRECIATION
I take this means of expressing my appreciation to my friends for their thoughtfulness during my recent hospitalization. The cards and flowers were a great lift and brought me much pleasure.

Mrs. John Bergstrom.

CARD OF THANKS

Please accept our sincere thanks for the many kindnesses extended and for the cards and flowers sent in memory of our mother.
