day of each month; Suzanna Wesley circle meets third Wednesday of each month. This Sunday's service is during the "One Great Hour," recognized by many churches of America. Be in church Sunday from 11 a. m. to 12 noon, the "One Great Hour." You are welcome.

There's an easier way

to protect your Diesel

this way

A Product of Standard of California

Standard Diesel Fuel is completely distilled to make sure it is 100% dirt-free. That's important, for every drop of fuel burned in your Diesel must pass through tiny injector-nozzle holes. If they get dirt-worn and enlarged, there's risk of costly repairs. Save your Diesel... save money... get Standard Diesel Fuel!

given by Patricia Peck; demonstration on fringing materials by Sittie and June Fivett, and a movie shown, "Productivity, Key to Plenty."

Monday, Heppner chamber of commerce members heard summaries of club experiences by Reta Graves and Roger Palmer after they opened the meeting with the club pledge and pledge to the American flag. A local leader, Elmer Palmer, told his hearers the leader's responsibility and opportunity in guiding young people through club work.

N. C. Anderson gave comparison figures on the enrollment last year and so far this year. Club enrollment has increased and two new projects — tractor maintenance and child care—are being carried in the county.

Mrs. Flint through use of a flannel graph, showed the needs of youth and the ways that the club program answered those needs through an organized program for balanced youth through project and other activities of the 4-H clubs.

Boardman school is featuring a program on club work today.

Business windows in Heppner are featuring three club exhibits. Pacific Power & Light holds the county club garden. Each club is represented by a flower growing in our county with the banner proclaiming "Watch Us Grow!"

Mrs. N. C. Anderson's Willow Creek Chefs know a good breakfast from an inadequate one. They placed an attractive display in the Red and White store window.

The Beginners Club of Knitters, under Mrs. M. R. Wightman's direction, have used the Turner, Van Marter window for their knitting story.

Lexington Cooking clubs have worked together preparing the exhibit stressing accurate measurements, thoughtful mixing and careful baking to obtain best results in baking.

Ione clubs have prepared an exhibit showing the profits made by their woodworking, livestock, cooking, clothing and canning clubs.

The theme this year is Better Living for a Better World Through 4-H Club Work. Any boy or girl between the ages of 9-21 may enroll in a project of their choice by contacting the county extension office or any local club leader.

SHRINERS ATTENTION

Don't forget the dinner the men are giving for the Shrine and Auxiliary members, at 6:30 next Saturday evening at the Masonic hall. Come and enjoy a good dinner together and help select the Shrine Rodeo princess.

LEGION TO OBSERVE 31ST ANNIVERSARY

The American Legion auxiliary will entertain the Legion post in observance of its 31st anniversary at the hall on the evening of Monday, March 13. There will be a potluck dinner at 6:30 o'clock followed by cards. Contract bridge and pinocle will be played.

All legionnaires and their ladies and auxiliary members and escorts are invited to attend. On the evening of March 21 at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary, a class of 24 candidates will be initiated by a team of past presidents.

NEW PHONE LINE INTO SANDHOLLOW UNDER WAY

Construction of a new telephone line into the Sandhollow section is nearing completion following the recent dissolution of the former Blackhorse-Sandhollow telephone association, according to Harry Duvall, president. With the coming of electricity to the rural areas, telephone service has become practically nil. Present construction of telephone lines takes away from the vicinity of the power line and provides for double line and new material throughout. Only eight members will be on each line. Construction is to begin soon on the Blackhorse line.

COLLINS MARCH TO HAVE PREMIER OVER RADIO KOAC

Thursday afternoon, March 16 at 4 o'clock, over station KOAC, a recording of "The Mustang March" will be played for the first time on the air. The march was composed by Robert Collins, band instructor of Heppner high school and was named for the local school.

This is one of three numbers composed by Collins for his master's degree and this particular march will be played by the Heppner school band at the spring music festival.
