

Monument Typists Accept Invitation To Baker Contest

By Millie Wilson
Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin had the pleasure of a visit from Mrs. McLaughlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eigner from Portland. While here Mr. McLaughlin and Mr. Eigner toured the countryside and went rabbit hunting on the Lynn Forest ranch. The visitors departed for Portland on Monday morning, much refreshed and glad to have seen our beautiful country.

The Monument high school typing class has received an invitation from Baker high school to participate in a typing contest, to be held the latter part of April. If Monument attends, it is planned to take three students. We know the locals will deport themselves favorably.

Baseball has started at the high school and the boys are hard at it. Not much is known at this time what the prospects are for a winning season, due to the fact that only eight boys are available and that three of last year's championship team are gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Prescott and son of LaGrande were weekend guests of Mrs. Prescott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Simas.

Mr. and Mrs. Marith Merrill of The Dalles spent the weekend in Monument visiting friends. They attended the Scotch-American dance Saturday night. Mrs. C. H. Coley VanDetti entertained with a dinner in their honor on Sunday. They left for their home in The Dalles Monday morning.

Rho Bleakman and his mother, Mrs. Ida Bleakman, drove to Cecil on Tuesday to visit Mr. Bleakman's sister and Mrs. Bleakman's daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Hynd and daughter Carol Sue.

J. D. Boyer was attending to matters of business in John Day on Monday.
Lewis Batty took his truck to Heppner Monday to get a load of household goods for Carmel Broadfoot. He returned on Tuesday. The Broadfoots have disposed of their property in Heppner and will make their home in Monument.

Tom Moore and son from Mt. Vernon were attending to matters of business in Monument on Tuesday.

Mrs. Lula Settle drove to John Day on Tuesday for her regular medical treatment.

The Monument Grade School attended the volleyball and basketball tournament at Mt. Vernon, Tuesday.

Mrs. Lydia Capon and children and Mrs. Clara Strecker accompanied Sam Riechen to Portland to spend the week visiting and the fore part of the week. They attending to matters of business.

Delmar Settle accompanied by his mother, Lula Settle was attending to matters of business in Pendleton, Wednesday.

Earl Sweek was a business visitor in John Day and Canyon City, Mrs. Chance Wilson left Thursday, by way of Trailways Bus, to spend an indefinite time in Arbuckle, California, visiting her sister, who is in poor health.

Mrs. Ed Enright and Mrs. Earl Sweek, unit president and district president of the American Legion auxiliary attended the regular meeting of the Long Creek unit Thursday afternoon.

Bill Jones received a fractured leg when an aerial pole he was installing fell on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Moore and infant son spent several days in Dayton, Washington, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gates were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Streker Saturday evening.

Loyal Cork and Orville Cummings of John Day were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sweek, Friday. Both men are preparing to go to Alaska for construction work.

Mrs. Nora Boyer and son Stanley were recent Heppner visitors. Grangers met at the grange hall one day last week and built new tables and pedestals for the hall.

County Agent News
JACKMAN ON WAY TO CHILE
Veteran Extension Farm crops Specialist E. R. Jackman of Oregon State College, and his wife have left on a four-month's trip to South America.

Jackman has been granted sabbatical leave from his college duties for the period, March 1st to July 1st. And he will be taking his first extended leave from his duties since he joined the Oregon State College extension service in 1920. During the thirty-year span, however, he was not with the extension service in 1926, 27, and 28.

Jackman and his wife expect to go by train to Miami, Florida. From there, they will travel by air to Chile. Their daughter—Sally and her husband—C. L. Wilson are enrolled at the University of Chile.

The longtime Oregon farm crops specialist expects to get in a little study on the trip too. He says the ancient Incas of Chile practiced irrigation long before the white man set foot on North or South America. Jackman is interested in studying their forage program first-hand.

N. C. Anderson, County Agent, attended a soils, fertilizer, and sprinkler irrigation conference in Pendleton held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The conference was led by specialists from Oregon State College. The Pendleton Grain Growers sponsored the conference which was held for cooperative managers, field men, and salesmen servicing farmers in the area. Discussed were fertilizers for wheat farms, irrigated farms and grass seed production. One day was spent on the A.B.C.'s of irrigating by sprinklers, fundamentals of irrigation equipment and designing sprinkler irrigation layouts. One half day was spent on a farm working out a sprinkler irrigation problem.

You get better products
Jobs are born
Money spreads and people prosper
Three things happen when earnings go to work

There has been a growing need in the West for wax... the kind used on milk cartons, bread wrappers and containers of other foods and drugs you buy.
To fill this need, Standard of California recently completed a plant which refines excellent wax from petroleum. The plant cost $3,500,000; the money came out of earnings—or profits—and here's what it meant to you:
Better protected and packaged products, of course. More jobs for construction workers in building the plant; steady employment for the men who work in it today. More sales for small businesses because the money paid to the workers involved has naturally spread to the grocer, the department store, the doctor and every other business and profession.
