Holly Lodge Pays Tribute To First Lex. Noble Grand

The Holly Rebekah lodge was hostess to a party last lodge night honoring Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell, first Noble Grand. Mrs. Campbell was presented with a corsage by Thelma Smethurst. She was introduced by Mrs. Archie Munkers, after which the minutes of the first meeting were read by Mrs. Truman Messenger. Mrs. Trina Parker sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" accompanied by Miss Dona Barnett. Mrs. Campbell was also presented with a bouquet from the Charles Marquardt family and a gift from the lodge. One game was played and refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. During the evening the names of the officers who took office on that first lodge night in Lexington February 20, 1904 were read, as follows: Elizabeth Campbell, Noble Grand; Lulu Nickols, V. G.; Eliza McAllister secretary; Della McMillan, treasurer; Anna McMillan, Warden; Jemmie Fuller, conductor; R. J. McMillan, S.N.G.; James Leach, L.L.N.G.; Julia Burchell, R.S.V.G.; Rose Eskelson, L.S.V.G.; Eliza Beymer, chaplain.

The mothers of the athletic teams of the Lexington school aided by the local P-TA were hostess to a banquet for the boys and their fathers Thursday night at the IOOF hall. Mr. Baker gave the opening address after which Mr. Rands presented letters to the following grade school boys: Asa Way, Richard Peck, Bill Steagall, Bob Steagall, Larry Groves, Donald Hunt. Mr. Feathers presented the following grade school girls with letters: Patty McMillan, Deanne Steagall, Phyllis Nolan, Joan Breeding, Betty Messenger, Glenna Griffith, Evonne Breeding, and Beverly Nolan. The following high school boys were given letters: Max Breeding, Earl Miller, Denny McMillan, Ronald Peck, Ronald Fahl, John Edwards, David Buchanan, Ray Papineau, Marvin Way and Charlie Padberg.

Ronald Fahl was accredited with the most sensational shot of the season. The following high school girls were then given letters: Shirley Hunt, Betty Griffen, Dorothy Loury, Alane Shannon, Patty McMillan and Ida Buchanan. The high school boys then presented Mr. Feathers with a gift and the grade school presented their coach, Mr. Rands, with one. The new P-TA officers for the coming year were announced: Mrs. Armin Wilton, president; Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, vice-president; Mrs. Maurice Groves, secretary and Mrs. Glenn Griffith, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Griffith of Spray visited Sunday at the Glenn Griffith home.

Mrs. Emma Brashears, local postmaster, is back at work again after enjoying an accumulated leave vacation.

A stork shower was given last Thursday afternoon in the lodge hall, honoring Mrs. Bill Marquardt. About 75 guests were present and many beautiful
